Bloomfield Hills Estates Elects Association Officers

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

The Bloomfield Hills Estates residents have had a series of meetings in the past few months in regards to forming a homeowners association. The subdivision boundaries are E. Long Lake Road on the south, Eastways Road on the west and Squirrel Road on the east. There are 88 homes in the area.

On March 9, the residents held a meeting at the Eastover School to select a board of directors slate and officers. Elected for a two-year term were E. C. Lewis and Douglas Hoops of Kerway Drive, Louis Crane of Westview Drive, Peter Martinson of Whittier Drive, Charles Thompson and Robert Collins of Masefield Drive. Elected for a one-year term were Hugh Mort of E. Long Lake Road, Mrs. Donald DeArment of Parkman Drive, William Hoglund of Westview Drive and Alan Yates of Masefield Drive. The officers include president, E. C. Lewis, vice president, Alan Yates; secretary, Mrs. Donald DeArment; and treasurer, Peter Martinson.

THE KERN LAKE Garden Club, all residents of the Bloomfield Hills Estates, held a "bake sale" at the Eastover School prior to the subdivision meeting on Monday evening. The sale was a sellout with proceeds benefiting the garden club's scholarship fund.

Cochairmen of the event were Mrs. Louis Cicchetti of Parkman Drive, club president; and Mrs. Arthur Olson of Kerway Drive. The garden club's March meeting was held at the Parkman Drive home of Mrs. Donald DeArment on Tuesday afternoon. Cohosting was Mrs. Arthur Poll of N. Westview Court. Slides on "Garden and Flower Arrangements of Colonial Williamsburg" were shown and narrated by the past president, Mrs. James Shannon.

"SPRING UNLOCKS the Flowers" is the title chosen for the first flower show sponsored by the Osage Garden Club. The show will be an every-member participation and will be held the afternoon of May 20 at the Lenox Road home of Mrs. Edward Gorslewski. The flower show committee held its first meeting recently at the home of its chairman Mrs. Fred Trickey of Orchard Hill Drive. The committee includes Mrs. Joseph Dworski, schedule; Mrs. George Platzer, stage; Mrs. Charles Howson, properties; Mrs. E. A. Linder, entries; Mrs. Russell Kock, conservation and education; Mrs. Donald Mills, hospitality. Others are Mrs. Warren Wood, judges and clerks; Mrs. Frederick Stefanaky, passing; Mrs. Alan Yates, publicity; Mrs. A. E. MacKintosh and Mrs. N. D. Neis, horticulture.

THE CONCORD Green Garden Club was another group of gardeners enjoying the slides of "Garden and Flower Arrangements of Colonial Williamsburg." They gathered at the Lamppost Lane home of Mrs. Wallace McWhirter to view the slides on Monday evening. Cohosting the March meeting were Mrs. Donald Mauders and Mrs. Richard Garrison. The garden club has invited

Rites Followed By European, Bermuda Trips

Carol E. Dorman became the bride of Donald C. Nolta last Saturday at St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Detroit. Parents of the newllyweds are Mr. and Mrs. David W. Dorman, 4615 Pickering Road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Cyrillus C. Nolta, 17832 Dunblaine, Birmingham.

For her wedding, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, fashioned with a bell-shaped skirt and a shallow scoop neck. A cummerbund of French lace and lace inserts on her sleeves and skirt highlighted the gown. A short veil of illusion net was secured by a pearl floral spray, and she carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy. Mrs. Charles M. Smith III of Livonia was the bride's matron of honor. Attendants included Mrs. Edwin Alexander of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Thomas Simpson, 1659 Henrietta, Birmingham.

THEY WORE street-length gowns of pink tulle peau fashioned with a scoop neck and bell-shaped skirt. Their ensemble was topped with a headpiece of a single pink organza rose.

Lawrence P. Nolta served as best man, while ushers included Douglas Colwell and Mark Krause Jr. of Royal Oak, John Heller of Troy, and Martin Brennan of Livonia.

The bride's mother wore an aqua lace sheath for her daughter's wedding, and the groom's mother was attired in a pale green silk suit dress.

Following a wedding breakfast at Dearborn Inn, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Bermuda and Europe. They will make their home in Birmingham upon their return.
