Speech Contest Sets Last Call For Entrants

The Optimist Club of Birmingham is sponsoring an oratorical contest open to boys 16 years and younger at 7:30 A.M. April 8 at the usual breakfast of the Optimist Club at Greenfield's Restaurant.

"Optimism — Formula for Freedom" is the title of the five-minute speech to be given by each contestant. Tom Ward, oratorical contest chairman, said the local group is sponsoring the event in conjunction with Optimist International.

"The winners at the club level will receive citations and statuettes and go on to compete in Optimist district contests to be held in Pontiac on April 22. The district winners will compete in one of four regional contests at Lansing in May.

THE FOUR WINNERS at the regional level will receive an expense paid trip to Denver, Colo., in June where they will compete for the top prize of a $1000 college scholarship at the 46th annual convention of Optimist International. Runners-up will each receive a $500 scholarship.

"Last year more than 20,000 boys took part in club contests in the United States and Canada," Ward said.

"We feel that this international contest is valuable because the experience in public speaking gives the boys self-confidence and teaches them leadership and initiative, in addition to giving them an opportunity to win a college scholarship," Ken Weaver, managing editor of the Birmingham Eccentric, commented.

Entry blanks available at The Eccentric must be in by March 26th.

Dems to Hear Adelaid Hart

"Challenge of 1964" is topic of her talk. Miss Hart has served as Constitutional Convention delegate and as Democratic caucus chairman. She was also vice-chairman of the education committee and a member of the executive committee in the convention.
