Stork Arrives Before Easter Bunny

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Attention Mr. Easter Bunny! Two more baskets will be waiting to be filled for two new little "boney bunnies." They are the new daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Allen and Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Daugharty.

Elizabeth Ann Daugharty was born Feb. 27 and weighed eight pounds, two ounces. She joins her sister, Kelly, at the Rock Creek Drive home of Dr. and Mrs. Daugharty.

Barbara Jo Allen was born to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Allen of Fall River Drive on March 7. She weighed six pounds, 10 ounces. She was welcomed home by big brother, Jack, 9, and big sister, Kathy, 7.

NEW RESIDENT of Cranbrook Village, Mrs. Charles Dorais will give a party for her teenage grandchildren on Easter eve. This tradition began with a party on Christmas eve and was so enjoyed by the children as well as by "Grandma Dorais" that she has added Easter eve to her schedule.

On Easter, Mrs. Dorais will divide her time between her two daughters and their families. She will enjoy brunch with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mulcrone and their six children of Rock Creek Drive.

Also joining the Mulcrone family will be Mr. Mulcrone's mother coming from her home in Dearborn for the day.

The Beauty Of Living In The Past

Nearly all of us can search our memories for those glorious days of years gone by, and whether we are 25 or 85, we can recollect fond thoughts that never again will be the same. It is a shame, though, that few of us can think back to Early America, for if we could, the warmth and gaiety of this period would probably find us saying to ourselves, "I wish I lived in those days." Well! Perhaps you can, for we invite you to take a walk through Early America. We know you'll be pleasantly surprised to see our authenticated galleries. They contain a multitude of selected pieces from the Colonial days, in settings that so typify the era of Colonization, that you'll feel like a pioneer.
