They Combined Business With Fun

Members of Bloomfield Farm Branch, WNFGA, combined a salad buffet luncheon, cards and a spring style show of hats with their annual ways and means meeting last week in the home of Mrs. Hoyt Anderson of that needed attention, explaining that there is not a shortage of capable teachers, and stressed that there is a difference between imparting knowledge and creating a desire to seek knowledge.

The second area in need of attention is the grouping of children. There should be a more realistic system of grouping them than is now in existence, according to Dr. Smith. And the third area is utilization of new techniques and methods of approach, such as program learning, team teaching and curriculum revision. Dr. Smith told his audience.

WHEELER LOVELL, of United Community Services, asked the PTA members to go to the polls April 6 and transform the idea of a Community College for Oakland County into a reality.

Boy Scouts, members of troop 1020, taking part in the flag ceremony opening the meeting were Rich Scholz, Larry Atwell, Stewart Nunneley, Dennis Ragan, Jack Hartrick, Mike Snellett and Bill Flawinski.

Alpha Delta Kappa

Alpha Rho Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, international teachers honorary sorority, held its monthly meeting Friday in the home of Mrs. Carl W. Suttin on 380 Wimbledon Drive, Birmingham. Co-hostess was Mrs. Gordon M. Poor of Ridgedale.

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brackin held a wedding reception at their home, 1573 Bowers Saturday for Mrs. Brackin's nephew and his bride. Receiving congratulations of 60 relatives and friends at the reception were Ralph C. Darby and Barbara Batten, who were married that evening in St. Paul's Methodist Church in Rochester.

Barbara, a physical education teacher at Central Junior High School, Rochester, is the daughter of Mrs. John R. Batten of Cedar Rapids, Ia. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Darby of Troy. The newlyweds will live in Rochester.

A daughter, Elizabeth Anne, was born March 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Ware, 1650 Hazel. She weighed seven pounds. The Wares have two other children Tommy, 5, and Jimmie, 2.

MRS. HAROLD HANDLEY, 1594 Penitence, was elected chairman of Adams-Torry Neighborhood Girl Scouts at the neighborhood meeting March 17. Mrs. Handley will take over the duties of Mrs. George W. Talburt, 520 Puritan. Also elected were three council delegates: Mrs. John W. Jickling, Mrs. Ralph Wallace and Mrs. Erling Oyer.

Alternate Council Delegates will be Mrs. William H. Knapp, Mrs. Alex Strachan and Mrs. Neal L. McCue. Elected to serve on the nominating committee were: Mrs. Owen R. Lefler, Mrs. Dwight La Barre and Mrs. Allen B. Hardenbrook.

Speaking on "Challenges of Education" at Torry PTA March 17, Dr. John B. Smith, Supt. of Schools, explained his philosophy on education. He said he believes that the purpose of education is "to develop each youngster to the utmost of his ability; to teach him to read critically, to think analytically and to speak clearly, and to fill a youngster with such a desire to learn that he wants to learn as long as he lives." Dr. Smith placed teachers first on the list of areas of education
