Mother, Daughter Plan Florida, Nassau Vacation

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Easter vacation starts today for Gail Bewick and her mother, Mrs. Thomas L. Bewick of Kingmill Drive, who are flying to Florida to visit Grandmother Janet R. Taylor in St. Petersburg.

On Monday, they will board the "Bahama Star" in Miami for a four-day cruise to Nassau.

THE ROY Elders of Pupam Drive will celebrate Easter with a large family dinner party (nine adults and seven children).

Coming from Detroit are the James Sorrentino and Stanley Barnowsky families. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elders will be there from Southfield along with their daughter, Barbara, and her two youngsters from Kalkaska.

A RECENT house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gorman was her grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe Lapham of Boston.

With the Gormans, Mrs. Lapham enjoyed a performance of "See How They Run" put on by the Franklin Village Players and was among the guests on March 13 at a small birthday party given for Mrs. Gorman by Mrs. Chuck McLaughlin of Bloomfield Hills.

Wesleyan alumni and their wives came from Grosse Ile, Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Dearborn, as well as Birmingham, to attend the dinner given by the George Bywaters on March 6 in honor of Dr. Burt Hallowell of Wesleyan University and Mrs. Hallowell.

A SIMPLE but effective arrangement of greens and a single tall Renaissance-styled candle in gold and bronze captured best of show in the recent Pine Lakes Estates branch WNFGA flower show.

It won the coveted tri-color for its creator, Mrs. William Drescher of Normanwood Drive.

There were 37 adult entries in the show, 17 of which earned ribbons.

MR. AND MRS. R. E. Hitchcock of Westmoor Road are back from a recent skiing vacation in Stowe, Vt. They spent a ski week at Edson Hill Manor and two days at the Trapp Family Lodge.

The Edward Russells of Raven Road were in New York the week end of Mar. 14-15 on a combined business and pleasure trip.

LESLIE COX of Walnut Lake Road was also in New York that week end attending the combined annual meeting of the National Chinchilla Breeders Association and the Farmers Chinchilla Co-operative Association. He is on the board of directors of both groups.

The Coxes' prize chinchilla, Lem, continues to capture trophies. He came in second in the recent state show put on by the Illinois branch of NCB.

On March 7 he won third place from among 238 entries in the national show of the National Chinchilla Breeders of Canada in Toronto.

HER NAME is O'Sullivan and her birthday is on St. Patrick's Day so it was the wearing of the green when Mrs. John O'Sullivan of Normanwood Drive attended the Michigan State alumnae luncheon at Town & Country on March 17.

Mrs. Frederick Whitford of Malibu Drive accompanied Mrs. O'Sullivan to the luncheon which was followed by a fashion show by Hilda.

"J-U-V-E-N-I-L-E" spelled fifth grader Stephen Weinstein and captured the Walnut Lake School spelling championship. Stephen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Weinstein of Malibu Drive, will now compete in the district spelling bee to be held at Adams School on April 15.

Another contestant we heard about, but in another school, went down on the word "attorney." Her daddy's profession? Attorney.
