Localites Finalize Homecoming Plans

Three local residents are finalizing plans for the Marygrove College Homecoming weekend April 3-5.

Mrs. Carl D. Dambrun, 18165 Avilla Drive, Lathrup Village, is general chairman of the festivities. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Thomas Armstrong of 1400 Fairfax Avenue, Birmingham.

Following the alumnae luncheon Saturday, April 4, an Awards Convocation will be held in Madame Cadillac Hall to honor two women who have made outstanding contributions to Marygrove and to the community. The awards chairman, Rosemary McMillan, 17135 Buckingham, recently announced that the winners are Adelaide Hart and Mrs. Harry W. Seitz. Following the awards presentation, a reception and tea will be held.

Five faculty members will conduct seminars for the Instant College program, Saturday morning, in the Library lecture hall. Topics of interest to both alumnae and their husbands have been planned. The seminars will be held from 10 to 10:45, and repeated from 11 to 11:45 a.m.

The Homecoming dinner dance will be held that evening at the University Club, and on Sunday morning a family breakfast will be served on campus.

Sweet Sixteen

A "Sweet Sixteen" luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club is the treat in store for Donna Richardson when she celebrates her birthday on April 18. Donna, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richardson of Pine Hill Drive in Bloomfield Hills, will be accompanied by a dozen of her classmates at the afternoon affair.

Going to Wed

Miss Charlene Falvey's engagement to Tom K. Graham Jr. was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Falvey of Kalamazoo. The bride-elect was honored at a brunch in the Oakhill Drive home of her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom K. Graham last Sunday.

The couple are both attending Western Michigan University, where Miss Falvey will graduate in June. They have set August 15 as the date of their marriage.

W. Bloomfield

Young at heart is Mrs. Phebe Lapham of Boston, 82 years old, who, several weeks ago flew alone to Detroit for a visit with her daughter and son-in-law, and is now the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. Walter Gorman of Darramoor Road.

With the Gormans, Mrs. Lapham enjoyed a performance of "See How This Show" put on by the Franklin Village Players and was among the guests the following day at a small birthday party given for Mrs. Gorman by Mrs. Chuck McLaughlin of Bloomfield Hills.

At the dinner they gave on March 6 in honor of Dr. Burt Hallowell of Wesleyan University and Mrs. Hallowell, the George Bywaters welcomed 23 guests (Wesleyan alumni and wives) from Grosse Ile, Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Dearborn, as well as Birmingham.

LEM, THE PRIZE chinchilla owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Walnut Lake Road, continues to capture trophies.

He came in second from among 898 entries in the state show put on by the Illinois branch of the National Chinchilla Breeders Association three weeks ago.

On March 6 the Coxes took him to Toronto to exhibit him in the national show of the National Chinchilla Breeders of Canada.

There he won third place from among 283 animals who, to enter, had had to be at least fifth place winners in lesser shows.

Another highlight of the Cozes' weekend stay at the Seaway Towers Hotel overlooking Lake Ontario was a fashion show of 17 chinchilla fur garments valued at $64,000 and including a full-length cape modeled by professional models flown in from New York.

Cox was in New York City last week end to attend, as a member of the board of directors of both groups, the combined annual meeting of the NCCA and PCCA (Farmers Chinchilla Cooperative Association).

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
