Bloomfield Hills Holds Annual Spring Concert

By KAREN TRIMMER
Special Writer

"Color It Spring" was the theme of the annual Bloomfield Hills High School spring concert held on March 25. Featured along with the mixed chorus were such groups as the "Hills," the "Juniorettes," the "Soph Singers," the Mixed Ensemble, the "Four Jacks," and the "Amtones," a Junior Achievement band.

Music from "West Side Story" along with religious compositions made up the major part of the program. Profit from the tickets was put into the choral fund.

BHHS STUDENTS witnessed their first "Monkey basketball" game on March 17 when members of the 'B' Club defeated faculty members. The game, sponsored by the senior class, had rules like any other normal basketball game except that all dribbling, passing, and any other plays, were made atop small, four-legged donkeys.

Several other area schools have previously sponsored such games, with the donkeys supplied by the Ervin Gausch and Son Donkey Ball Company.

Seventeen senior girls will travel through Europe this summer with American Problems teacher Miss Deanna Maher. Their 22 day trip from July 15 to August 3 will include such places as Belgium, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Paris and London.

ON MARCH 20 the "unsinkable Titanic" sank for its second time. "A Night to Remember," a realistic portrayal of Walter Lord's best seller, was shown along with a cartoon and a special feature on Hollywood stars in the BHHS little
