Mrs. Beaumont has two lunch hours

Yours and hers. Because many people bank from 12:30 to 2:00, Mrs. Beaumont spends your lunch hour on the job—takes hers earlier. She and other members of the staff at Manufacturers Bank rotate their hours so that you will receive prompt, courteous service whether you bank in the morning, noon, or afternoon. Whatever your banking needs, you can count on the kind of service that makes people pleased to say, "Manufacturers, that's my bank." Make it yours.

106 Area Residents Tour Europe

By ELIZABETH YATES, MI-1482
 A group of 106 Birmingham-Bloomfield residents made up a Birmingham tour group, chartered a plane, and departed for Munich, Germany, from Metropolitan Airport for a three-week sojourn in Europe.
 Many left the group on arrival for skiing in the Alps, others traveled through the Scandinavian countries, Germany and France, while other journeyed to the Holy Land and other areas of interest.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Goetz and 15-year-old daughter, Candace, of N. Reading Road, departed for Athens, Greece, Cairo, Egypt and Awan. They boarded a hydrofoil boat for a 170-mile trip down the Nile to view the ancient tombs of Ramses and Nefertari that are to be preserved to a mountaintop to be preserved when the dam is to be built in the near future.
 They were also intrigued by the many treasures of centuries ago that are also to be moved from the lowlands and preserved. Other historic relics will remain and be covered by the waters never to be seen again.

FROM THERE the Goetz's visited the Holy Land, Rome, Geneva, Zürich and then met the group back in Munich.
 The Hugh Carneys of Sussex Road, Frank Carney of Detroit and the John Picus of Bloomfield Hills were among a group departing by bus for a ski week in Kitzbui, Austria, and surrounding areas. Frank Carney was on and off skis much of the time filming a travelogue.
 After the week the Picus flew to England and then back to San Moritz, Switzerland, while the Hugh Carneys spent a week touring Nice, Paris, the French and Italian Riviera and Monaco.
 They all met again in Clouser, Switzerland, for their second week of skiing. The Carneys rented a car during much of their trip to visit the many towns and villages where Mr. Carney was stationed for two years during World War II.
 Arriving home to spend the Easter holiday week with her family, the Max Kings of North Adams Road, is Susan DeWitt, a freshman at Sienna Heights College.
 THE THOMAS Colleys of Parkman Drive traveled to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for a week of sunning, swimming and the celebration of their 26th wedding anniversary. Joining them in Florida were the Dave Rolls of Birmingham and the Al Watsons, former Michigan residents.
 On their return Mrs. Colley will travel to Galesburg, Ill. to visit an aunt and uncle, Mrs. Ethel Bunker and E. E. Eldridge.
 THE KENNETH Milnes of Candiestick Court journeyed to Boston with their children, Kenzie and Pataty to visit parents of Mrs. Milne, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Coch.
 The children stayed on with their grandparents while the Milnes spent a week skiing on the slopes at Cannon Mountain and Wildcat in New Hampshire. They stopped off at points in Vermont to visit friends before returning for their children and then home.
 On the week end the Kenneth Milne, Sr., arrived from Pendleton, Ind., for a pre-Easter visit.
 HOME FROM a ski week at Stowe, Vt. are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moelich of Winchcombe Drive. They stopped off in Buffalo, N. Y., to visit Mr. Moelich's mother, Mrs. Alice Moelich and then join ski friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Illig of East Aurora, N. Y.
 During their week they enjoyed skiing at Stowe, Snow Ridge and at Tustin and Elllettsville, N. Y.
 On their return Mr. Moelich, a designer with General Motors, re-packed and departed for a few days at the New York World's Fair to look over his own designing work.

The Kent Biels of Ashover Road announce the birth of a son, Carter, on Feb. 28. They have another son, Colin, 2.
 The James Henrys and the five little Henrys, Jim, George, Pat, Mary, Louise, Phyllis, of Ashover Road, have had their good-byes to area friends in April. Mr. Henry has been transferred to Kalamazoo with IBM and they will be moving into their new home in that city.
 "MAN OF OFF" Seasons" by Robert Bots, well known author of the screen play Lawrence of Arabia, will be the next attraction to benefit the St. Thomas More Catholic Church on North Adams Road. The non-religious play is a take-off on the life of St. Thomas More and received the New York Critics Award for 1951-52.
 The committee handling the benefit has chosen April 20, opening night of the play at the Fisher Theatre, but stress it will be an informal affair.
 Chairman of the benefit is John MacLachlan of Top View Court; program chairman is Harold Jewell of Oakhill Drive; and ticket chairman is Mrs. Roy Belknap of Dursley Road.
 Committee members include Mrs. Reid MacGuldwinn of Haddington Road, Mrs. Harold Snyder of Kirkcaldy Road and Donald Nelson of Beech Road.

Kingswood Students Observe Election Week

By BETTY KRAUSE, Special Writer
 One of the most momentous weeks of the year for the Kingswood student body is election week. Elections were held March 16 for all offices except Dorm Council, which held its election the week before.
 Student Council was announced on Friday, March 20 by the outgoing president, Mary Jane Barthwell. Next year's president will be Debbie Dobski, with Cicely Guenther and Kris Vandenberg serving as vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.
 On Tuesday, present members of Cabinet handed pins to next year's Cabinet, Candy Porter, Sue Schwan, Anne Fuchs, Betty Krause, Chris Huebner and Susie Wilder. The first four will be seniors and the latter two, juniors.
 DORM COUNCIL announced that next year's seniors Fran Stair, Kathy Smith and Debby Hayes; juniors, Maggie Shopen and Kathy O'Hara; and sophomore Sue Stewart will serve on Dorm Council next year. The purpose of this committee is to represent and to help govern the resident students.
 Class presidents and team captains for next year were also decided. Sue Duryea, Mary Fisher, Mona Majzoub, Penny Mitchell and Carol Lerchen will be the presidents of the twelfth through eighth grades, respectively.
 White team captains for these grades will be Mary Weir, Sheri Strickland, Cindy White, Alexa Kachinko and Darcy Twyman. Green captains will be Crys Jones, Sue Jospoy, Jean Rosella, Katie Lerchen and Emily Fisher.
 Cabinet's chairman, Dorm Council President and Athletic Council President will be announced at a later date.
 KINGSWOOD'S basketball teams met with defeat on March 13 at Northville High School. The Varsity lost 48-31, with Debbie Sterritt the high scorer with 7 points. Barb Custer had a high of 4 points as the Reserve lost another one pointer, 12-11.
 Miss Waldo, Miss Goodale and members of the Council of the Alumnae Association attended a luncheon for the ladies of the press on March 17. The purpose of the meeting was to inform the press of the Alumnae theater benefit to be held on May 24.

 Joan Matthews is the school champion in the Detroit News Spelling Bee. An eighth grader, she will represent Kingswood in the District Bee on April 15. Janet Decker was the runner-up.

Romy Grandchild
 Mr. and Mrs. Loren G. Keñan of Brady Drive, Bloomfield Hills, announce the birth of a daughter, Pamela Jane, on March 20. Small Pam has two brothers and two sisters eagerly awaiting her arrival home from Beaumont Hospital and also has a couple of well-known grandparents anxious to make her acquaintance — Gov. and Mrs. George Romney. Pamela's mother is the former Lynn Romney.
