FROM CHRISTIAN SEMINAR

Teen-Agers Express Views On Washington, New York

"Emotion recollected in tranquillity" is how the poet Wordsworth described it. Rev. William M. Sutterlin thought the idea worth a try, so he called a meeting of six teen-agers in his study at Birmingham's First Baptist Church.

Family Sunday Scheduled at Congregational

Family Sunday will be observed at Congregational Church of Lathrup Village at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at which time all the children from the first grade and up will remain in the sanctuary with their parents to hear the sermon by Dr. Harry Martin, retired minister, formerly of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham.

Emanuele Santi and his Stradivarius will be the guest of the congregation at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at which time all the children from the first grade and up will remain in the sanctuary with their parents to hear the sermon by Dr. Harry Martin, retired minister, formerly of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham.

AS GUEST SPEAKER, Rev. Santi will bring news of the 59-year-old home and his children and show slides of the work being done there. To date some 8,000 children have been cared for in this orphanage.

A highly talented concert violinist, Dr. Santi will also perform on his violin. Dr. Emanuele Santi received his undergraduate work at the University of Naples and his Conservatory of Music. He came to the United States as a very young and promising violinist. His long stay in America led him to become an American citizen.

He furthered his education in the field of psychology and religion, receiving doctors degrees from Union Theological Seminary and Columbia University. He is a member of Kappa Delta, Phi and Phi Delta Kappa. Dr. Santi held various pastorates in New York state and since 1957 has been co-director with his brother, Theodor Santi, M.D., of the Casa Materna.

THE RECENT Pancake Supper which was carried out by the TYP's of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village was attended by 345 members and friends of the church, according to chairman Bill Christian. The resultant $225 fund has been turned into the operating fund of the church, thereby fulfilling the TYP's commitment.

Annual Lenten Mission Offering At St. James

The annual St. James Church School Lenten Missionary Offering presentation will be made on Sunday, at both the 9:15 and 11 a.m. services.

In place of the traditional afternoon service for pre-school and primary children, a special service of presentation is planned during the regular Sunday morning session of Church School. During the service of worship, recognition will be made of the works named by the classes during Lent and children will receive their Easter plans.

CULMINATING The three-fold Lenten program of prayer, study and sharing, junior department young people will bring their Mite boxes for presentation during the regular first Sunday-of-the-month Holy Communion service.

The Lenten Missionary Offering is used to help in areas needed in underprivileged urban areas of the United States and India.
