Have You Met

The residents of 2611 Lake Charnwood Blvd., Birmingham? Mr. and Mrs. David H. Willard moved from San Rafael, Calif. with Jeffrey Allen, 11 months. Willard is general sales manager with the Eaton Mfg. Co., Dearborn Marine Engine division. The family enjoys boating, water skiing, fishing and hunting.

With an eye to stocking booths for the Hunt Fair, traditionally held in conjunction with the Detroit Horse Show at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club June 23 through June 28, dozens of Birmingham-Bloomfield women are making handmade love-ies to catch the customer's eye. The group which meets in Mrs. Taylor's home once a week is particularly interested in items for the Scholar Shop. Proceeds from the fair, one of the largest in the country, go to Oakland University's scholarship fund.

Cranbrk WNFGA To Meet Monday

Mrs. Earle S. MacPherson will open her home on Merrimac Court in Bloomfield Hills to the Cranbrook Branch, WNFGA on Monday, April 6 at 12:30 p.m. The members of Concord Green and Williamsburg Garden Clubs, who were sponsored by the Cranbrook Branch, have been invited to attend this meeting.

A dessert will be served followed by a program of "Spring Flower Arrangements" to be demonstrated by Kenneth Brady of Henry Forster Florists.

Hostesses are Mrs. Ernest F. Scherer, Mrs. Frederick Pisk, Mrs. Charles A. Pfister, and Mrs. Donald K. Tyler.

Stars

The James Tuyn family of Lahser Road journeyed to Saginaw to spend Easter day with Mrs. Tuyn's family. Accompanying their parents were Mary Beth, Linda and Rick Tuyn.

"HAVING TROUBLE WITH Johnny's math, parents?" Then mark a circle on your calendar to attend the mathematics forum on Monday, April 6 at Conant School.

The explanation of the math program will be by Mrs. Marjorie Thomas, helping teacher, and Mrs. Marguerite Bean, educational consultant.

The coffee hour will be from 7:30 until the business meeting at 8 p.m.

While Eugene Sparrow keeps the home fires burning at home on Westwood Lane, his family is taking advantage of spring vacation. Mrs. Sparrow and daughter, Kathy, 12, departed after Easter to spend the remainder of the week with Mrs. Sparrow's brother and family of Ames, Ia. Another daughter, Donna, 18, flew to spend the Easter holiday with her friend, Nancy Scotten, in Miami. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Scotten, former residents of Westwood Manor.

The "Kitt Wits" of Foxcroft will display their talents to members of Foxcroft Branch, WNF-GA, when they meet Monday, April 6, at Franklin Community Church. The showing of hand-knits will be further augmented by a special attraction. Irene Brown will present her custom-designed knit wear of trimmed sweaters and matching skirts which will be modeled by members.

The "saled 'n' style" luncheon will begin at 12:30 p.m.

On Easter Day there was a joint celebration in the Shallmarr Lane home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Daly, Jr. Twenty-four members of the immediate family gathered to toast Mrs. Daly's mother, Mrs. Eugene L. Tremblay of Birmingham, who was 80 years young on Sunday.

Among those gathering at the Dalys for cocktails preceding a dinner at Meadowbrook Country Club were Mr. and Mrs. Carson C. Bingham of Bingham Farms and the Rudrick R. Ottos and children of Birmingham. Rudrick Otto, Jr., flew in from the East especially for the occasion.
