'B' for Birmingham Country Club, 'O' for Oakland Hills, 'P' for Pine Lake, 'O' for Orchard Lake, 'F' for Forest Lake and 'R' for Red Run. All together that spells "BOPOPR," which stands for gay times for the club members' sons, daughters and guests between the ages of fifteen and nineteen.

BOPOPR parent chairmen, Mrs. Walter F. Kuckelman and Mrs. John A. Fournier, have named as a committee a teen-age boy and girl from each club to assist in programming the events to suit the young set. They include Maggie Pioch and John Brewer from Birmingham Country Club; Cinde Cahn and Rick Rennell from Oakland Hills; Ann Barrett and Dave Carney from Pine Lake; Peggy Beier and Bill McNaughton from Orchard Lake; Ellen and Teri Fournier from Forest Lake and Teri Fournier and Dave Firth from Red Run.

The BOPOPRs will swing into action Friday, April 10, with a dance from 9 'til midnight at the Forest Lake Country Club. The party will feature a buffet supper of pizzas, hamburgers and fishburgers and surprises throughout the evening.

Chairmen of the event, Ellen and Andy McGuire, assisted by Sue and Pat Henry, recommend informal dress. The girls will wear skirts and sweaters or jumpers.

Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Coupe, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Riley and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Henry, chairmen of the Forest Lake party.

MR. AND MRS. James W. Gunn and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dittrich entertained their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Foust and Clarence Otter at a shipboard reunion party.

The group recently returned from a nineteen-day South American cruise aboard the SS Mariana.

The Gunn's home, scene of the "Captain's Party," was transformed into cruise ship SS Gun-Dee. The bathtub, filled with water and w floating seashore, was the ship's swimming pool, posted with a sign reading "No Zabuha." Translated, "No Diving."

Flags decorated posters imprinted with the names of ports which the group had visited were used as backdrops to recapture a south of the border mood. Pices soured were featured during the cocktail hour.

Jim Gunn and Bob Dittrich, in white jackets, were the ship's bartender and waiter. Joanne Gunn and Caryl Dittrich wore nurses uniforms to take the part of stewardesses.

MR. AND MRS. Jack J. Rinehart have returned from a trip to Mexico City and a visit at the Las Brisas in Acapulco, Mex., where they remained for a week.

Before returning to Birmingham, the Rineharts attended the ninety-third birthday party dinner dance in honor of Mrs. T. M. Rinehart, Jack's mother.

Among the 75 guests attending the celebration held at the Brooke Hollow Country Club in Dallas, Tex., were Mrs. William S. Cooper of Bloomfield Hills, granddaughter of Mrs. Rinehart, and Mrs. A. M. Taber of Birmingham, sister of Mrs. Rinehart.
