NORTH ADAMS

Men's Night Scheduled By Osage Garden Club

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Osage Garden Club members are looking forward to escorting their husbands and friends to their fourth annual "Men's Night" on Monday evening, April 13. The social evening to be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on North Adams Road will begin with a "get-acquainted hour" at 6:30 when punch will be served. The clubs popular smorgasbord dinner, special dishes from the members own kitchens, will be served at 7:30.

A 66-pound roast of beef from Monahan's, complete with chef, will give the dinner the finishing touch.

The party will have an "international theme" this year. Colorful travel posters will adorn the walls, foreign dolls will center the tables as well as floral centerpieces.

Slides of the "World's Fair" and music will add to the club's evening of the year. Planning the event are chairman Mrs. Charles Crane, a n d committee members Mrs. William Route, Mrs. Michael Bell, Mrs. William Niehaus, Mrs. Wendell Crisp, Mrs. Donald Richardson and Mrs. Edward Goralewski.

IT WAS surprise time for the two young misses in the Bloomfield Hills Estates subdivision in the last week. The first miss was Claudia Wright of Whittier Drive who was completely surprised on her 12th birthday when she entered the home of her hostess, Leslie Glasgow of Eastways Drive.

Joining in the celebration were 10 area school friends from the sixth grade at Eastover School. The second miss to be surprised was Leslie Glasgow. Her hostess was Claudia Wright who in turn had invited the same group of friends for a supper party and games honoring Leslie on her 12th birthday.

MRS. OTTILIE Bigelow of North Adams Road has returned home after a winter south of the border. She and friends departed just before the holiday season spending the first six weeks at Acapulco.

Another week was spent in Taxco, Mexico, visiting the silver mines and other area points of interest and then on to Cuernavaca for their last week.

The group, which included Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lees of Toronto, Canada, and Francis C. King of Rochester, flew back to the Coronada in Miami Beach for another month of sunshine.

On her return Mrs. Bigelow entertained at a dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club for friends on Saturday evening. On the guest list were Mrs. John Hannah of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Anderson of Southfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hilliker of Detroit; Francis C. King of Rochester and Toronto, Canada, house guests Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grant.

On Easter Sunday Mrs. Bigelow entertained her house guests at brunch at the Kingsley Inn.

Mrs. Frank Fehz of Whittier Drive and children, Judy, John, Frank, Lindy and the family dog, packed their station wagon and departed for Syracuse, N. Y., for Easter week. During their stay they will be visiting relatives and friends.

THE DUANE Millers of Pontiac are newcomers to Massfield Drive. They have two children, School; and David, 2. Miller is a senior project engineer with Pontiac Division of General Motors. Among their interests are music, painting and model railroads. While living in Nebraska they both played with the Nebraska Symphony Orchestra. Mrs. Miller played the viola while Miller was a brass soloist.

Presently visiting the Millers in their new home is Mrs. C. J. Gray of Hastings, Neb., mother of Mrs. Miller. Flying in from Washington, D. C. for a two-day stay was a brother, Robert K. Gray, a former member of the Eisenhower staff at the White House. Gray returned to Washington on Saturday night to sing on Easter Sunday at the Washington Cathedral.

"Come to the Grunch" (Grunchy's and Lunch) is the invitation extended by the Oakland Hills Country Club to its members on April 15.

Festivities will begin at 11:30 a.m. with cocktails followed by the Grunchy's, a men's informal singing group. Luncheon and bridge will round out the activities.

Committee members include Mrs. George H. Quinn, Mrs. Louis M. Rich, Mrs. James M. Scott, Mrs. F. J. Sahn, Mrs. Edmund K. Terry and Mrs. Orna B. Crogo.

FLEXIBLE?

"Why don't you go to Osmun's?"

Back in 1931 when Osmun's was new... charge accounts weren't.

But until recently there has been virtually no change in the routine: Your charge enabled you to buy a suit or a topcoat without immediately spending a cent of cash. Then, later, when the bill came, you paid. The whole amount. At one time. Today, though, your Osmun's charge can be as flexible as your needs.

Want to pay your bills in full as they fall due? Fine. Prefer to maintain a low monthly charge balance? A higher balance? Be our guest. We want to make your purchasing as easy and practical as possible.

That's why you can rely on Osmun's to continue to offer you the newest services as well as the very cream of America's brand name clothing and accessories... like "Botany" 500, Eagle, Petrocelli, Dobbs, French-Shriner, etc.

Incidentally, it only takes 4 minutes to open a convenient Osmun's charge. We can do it in three minutes if you're rushed.

After all, we're flexible, too.
