Hefts Celebrate Silver Anniversary

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-0955
When Mr. and Mrs. Earle C. Heft of Roanoke Drive were married 25 years ago the ceremony was a quiet one without the usual reception or other such celebration.
This was not the case when they celebrated their silver anniversary. The Hefts were the guests of honor when friends and neighbors gathered at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Boris Osojnak of Roanoke Drive on March 21. They stepped into a beautiful setting of artistic silver and white floral arrangements, wedding bells and large interlocking wedding bands. Festivities began with a champagne punch cocktail party and progressed to a delicious dinner and an evening of merriment.
THE MAIN entertainment of the evening came as a complete surprise to the Hefts. A slapstick skit of "This is Your Life" was written by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kaptur, Kaptur, who has a definite talent for this sort of thing, acted as the master of ceremonies, Ralph Shmedwards.

Various portrayals in hilarious costumes were of an old school teacher, ex-boyfriends and ex-girlfriends. They were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wacker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. James McCassey, Mr. Boris Osojnak and Mrs. Vincent Kaptur.

The Hefts were then presented with several gifts of the comic variety such as cardboard boxes painted to look like matched luggage, a huge floral arrangement made up entirely of weeds (Mrs. Heft is an active garden club member) and an album of the skit complete with the script and pictures (Poloroid) of the costumed players.

WHEN THE hilarity simmered down, the Hefts were presented with a Silver Dollar Tree, a gift from the guests honoring them. Besides the entertainers there were Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Peiffer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Styles, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Witke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carson, Dr. and Mrs. William Westmaas, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Humpal.
Others were Mr. and Mrs. Max Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. William Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cox, Mr. and Mrs. John Burrell and Mr. and Mrs. Ludolph Thun.

MR. AND MRS. Cleve Masson of Crisholm Trail were among the many having a "family" Easter dinner. Mr. Masson, Ray Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Clark, drove down from Flint for the day.

Driving East, to Washington, D. C., to visit with their son Bob and his wife, found Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond of Sherwood wondering if they had brought with them the clothing to go with the climate, which seems to be changing from day to day.

The Desmonds left on March 27 and returned on March 31 which gave them a long Easter week end with the young couple.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Poling of Woodbank will be having as their house guests the week end of April 4, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Loomis of Grand Haven.

The men were "buddies" when in the navy and enjoy getting together with their families and to reminisce about their time in the service. The Loomises will bring with them their two children, Ricky and Linda.

IT'S IN AGAIN, out again at

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morrow of Birmingham (left) and the LeRoy Smiths of Bloomfield Hills are vacationing at the Jolly Roger in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Latest word to the Eccentric from that glamor town reported temperatures in the high 80's!

The Jack Tigelaar home on S. Cranbrook Road. Their son Robert no sooner checked in at home base with three house guests (all boys are from Hope College) when they all left again to be on the road for ten days.

The boys are all members of the Hope College Glee Club which is touring the eastern states and parts of Canada during the school vacation. They sang at Radio City on Easter morning as a part of their itinerary.

THE TIME seemed ideal to mix a little pleasure with business so when Bill and June Bundy of S. Cranbrook Road attended meetings of 20 Chevrolet dealers from various parts of the states who had gathered in New Orleans, they took a little extra time to visit the fascinating city.

Bill, who was recuperating from recent surgery, took it easy (no golfing) but he and June did enjoy the famous dining places in the French Quarter, the piers and bayous. On their return trip they stopped in Chicago for several days to visit with Bill's family.

MEMBERS themselves will preside over the program when the Berkshire branch of the Women's National Fund and Garden Club holds its meeting on Tuesday, April 7.

A new slate of officers will also be presented at the 12:30 p.m. luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. James A. Horwarth of W. Greenwich Road.

Members are being asked to bring their own sandwiches and will be served salad and beverage by the committee Mrs. F. G. Schwartz, Mrs. George Ruty, Mrs. Otto Grob, Mrs. George Wright and Mrs. C. H. White.

As chairman, Mrs. James M. Scott has titled the program "What's Your Vine." She will be assisted by Mrs. Norman C. McCarty, Mrs. Clarence Pratt, Mrs. J. R. Fortune, Mrs. B. W. Westcott, Mrs. William S. Kries, Mrs. V. C. Wagner and Mrs. Francis Freyer.

The George Andersons of W. Dartmoor enjoyed a week end visit when their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knoedel of Pittsburg arrived on Friday, March 27 with their children, Christopher, Mark and Johnathan.

TO FIT A PAIR OF FEET

"Children's feet come in all shapes and sizes," noted John C. Batte, manager of the HACK SHOE STORE at 235 Pierce Street, "but we have the sizes to fit all of them. Imagine our widths for first walkers: A, B, C, D, E, EEE and EEEEE! And, if needed, we can make them up in EEEEEE."

"This makes it easy to fit each child correctly so that growing feet can develop properly," he concluded.

Mr. Batte, like all the other members of the Hack Shoe Company staff, is an experienced shoe fitter, dedicated to quality, fit and service—in the 48-year-old HACK tradition.

There are three other HACK SHOE STORES, all in Detroit: Downtown, on the 5th Floor of the Mutual Bldg. at 28 W. Adams Ave.; at 16633 East Warren Ave.; and at 19860 Livernois.
