Howes Prove Stamina With Three Quick Trips

By GLORIA JESSUP

An expert "packer" by now is Mrs. Paul Howe of Northgate. She had no sooner returned from an extended skiing trip and a side trip to California visiting relatives when Dr. Howe said:

"Let's go to Florida." So, Mrs. Howe unpacked and repacked and off they went to Vaca Key where they rented a "hotel" and a boat. Dr. Howe relaxed with his fishing pole, while Mrs. Howe pursued her hobby of scuba diving. This was her first time to use two air tanks and she reports that it is twice as much fun because one is able to stay under the water for a longer period of time.

On Easter Eve the Howes entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linch of Autumn Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Drucker of Philadelphia, Pa., at a dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale D. Doehr of Batterman Lane spent a long weekend in Toledo visiting with Mrs. Doehr's parents. Accompanying their parents for Easter at grandparents were George, who attends Country Day, and Darrel, 4.

IT WAS a large family gathering at the Richard Anderson home on San Quentin Easter Sunday. In addition to their daughters, Joyce, Jackie, Jayne and Jill, there was Lt. and Mrs. Thomas MacCracken and their children Tom, Jr., and Richard. The MacCracken family flew in from Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin and Margaret, 18 months, of Cambridge and Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Bankard and young Jennifer, 5 months, of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. Gene MacCracken of Beverly Hills also were among the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krueger, with Karen and Kathy, of Westbrook Parkway joined Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krueger, Sr. for Easter dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club. Also guests of the senior Kruegers were Mr. and Mrs. Richard LaDue and three children of Bloomfield Village and Mrs. Roy Tero of Birmingham.

DR. LOUIS Monacel, assistant director of the Detroit Great Cities project, will be the guest speaker at the April 6 meeting of the Lathrup Women's Club.

Dr. Monacel received his formal education in the Detroit area and his Ph.D. in Education at Wayne State University. His main interest is social studies and he is the author of several books.

He is a member of the citizens advisory committee for the Detroit Public Schools. He will speak on the Detroit Great Cities project.

Dr. Monacel will be introduced

Sarah meets with Mrs. Charles Blood of 2510 Empire on April 16 at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Norman Blieb will be cohostess.

BRIDE-ELECT BROOKE BURGESS

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, April 2, 1964

It is not the mission of one person to break down the spirit of another in order to bring about a desired reform. It was the method of some early American divines to so ardently pursue their efforts to Christianize others that notorious treatment was considered "in order to save their souls." Mere threat of punishment alone cannot bring about reform . . . in children or adults.

They Heard It First

When the William D. Downeys of Bloomfield Hills and the John Stevensons of Birmingham return from vacationing in Florida, they'll bring first hand information concerning an engagement party of interest here.

They happened to be in Pompano Beach Easter Sunday, the day that Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Burgess, formerly of Bloomfield Hills and Rochester, announced the betrothal of their daughter, Brooke, to James Richard Adler of New York City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Adler of Shaker Heights, O.

Brooke attended Kingswood and Pine Crest School in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and will be graduated from the University of Michigan in May. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Gamma Association.

Her fiancé was graduated from Dartmouth and the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration. His fraternity is Kappa Sigma.

The couple is planning a June 27 wedding in Pompano Beach.

Adventurer's Club

Members of the Adventurer's Club have been invited to attend an annual meeting April 7 at the home of Mrs. B. A. Davidson on Rands Road. Co-hosting the noon luncheon will be Mrs. Gustave Muth and Mrs. J. C. Sasser.
