

Bermuda Trip Follows Connelly-Kurth Rites

Double-ring ceremonies at Christ Episcopal Church in Oswego, N. Y. united Jean Carol Connelly and Noel Edward Kurth on Saturday.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Randall Connelly of White Plains, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kurth, 287 Larchlea Drive, Birmingham.

The bride wore a princess-styled gown of ivory silk-faced peau de soie adorned with re-embroidered Alencon lace and pearls. The pleated back fullness extended into a chapel train, while the bodice of the gown was enhanced with a bateau neckline and short sleeves.

A fashioned rose of matching ivory peau de soie secured the bride's illusion veiling. She carried to the altar a prayer book adorned with a white cymbidium corsage.

MRS. KURTH

Jr. of East Lansing, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Lynn and Gretchen Kurth, sisters of the groom, from Birmingham.

The matron-of-honor wore a gown fashioned of moonstone blue silk organza over taffeta styled with a floor-length bell-shaped skirt. Her headpiece was a cluster of matching silk organza roses attached to veiling. Bridesmaids were identical gowns of crystalline mauve.

L. William Lewis of South Bend, Ind., served as best man. Ushers were Ronald Malis of Detroit and Walter Glenn Williams Jr. of East Lansing.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore powder blue lace over taffeta. The groom's mother was attired in a mint green silk suit.

Following a buffet reception at the Fortnightly Club of Oswego, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. The bride's traveling costume was a blue and green wool tweed suit with champagne accessories.

The couple will make their home in Farmington.

Vows Exchanged At Christ Church

Wearing a traditional gown of white peau de soie, Harriet Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne A. Smith of Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday afternoon to become the bride of Kenneth Douglas Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth George Stuart of Rochester, N. Y.

MRS. STUART

Washington, D.C., was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Marna Evans Diehl of Boston, Mass.; Christine Louise Smith of Chicago, Ill., a cousin of the bride; Kathryn Roberta Stuart of Rochester, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Wayne Bury Smith of Wilmington, Dela.

They all wore floor-length, seafoam green chiffon over taffeta. The dresses were designed with bateau necklines, short cap sleeves and modified bell skirts. A back panel of chiffon ranging in three colors of blue was caught at the waistline with a matching chiffon flower, the same blues used in the flower headpieces. They carried cascade arrangements of cymbidium orchids and variegated ivy.

William K. Stuart of Rochester was best man, and seating the guests were Wayne Bury Smith, brother of the bride, of Wilmington, Dela.; Donald C. Allen and William T. Curcotte of Rochester; Kent J. Vana of Grand Rapids.

For the reception at the Village Woman's Club, the bride's mother wore turquoise peau de soie with matching pumps and a profile hat of blue and antique gold maline. Her flowers were yellow freesia and stephanotis. Mrs. Stuart chose a beige ribbed sheath for the occasion with a ribbon hat of beige and brown. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Following the reception, the newlyweds left for New York City where the bridegroom will be employed for six months by Eastman Kodak Co. at the World's Fair. Following this assignment, they will make their home in Rochester.
