Parents Proud of Teens Elected to Honor Society

BY ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

The township can be proud of its many teen-agers who were recently elected to the National Honor Society.

At a ceremony and tea at Groves High School on March 9, parents beamed with pride and happiness as the names of their children were announced. Elected to the society were Sergei Yevich, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. and E. Yevich; Jerry Griggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griggs of Westmoor Road; J. W. Alken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quatro of Inletter Road; Richard Krogard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Krogard of Kenmore Road; and Catherine Eddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddy of Heather Lane.

Two weeks after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Yevich were back at Groves again this time to attend the winter sports banquet at which their son received his letter in swimming.

Also at the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser whose son Randy received his letter in basketball.

CATHERINE EDDY and her third cousin Sandra, daughter of the Herbert Eddys of E. Newland Drive, were both away last week on the senior trip to Washington and New York. Catherine was with the group from Groves and Sandra was with the party from Bloomfield Hills High.

Catherine, who plays the violin with the Dearborn Symphony, will enter the University of Michigan's School of Music in September.

The Jack Wares and their three children of Suiters Lane got together with his sister's family, the Arthur Meyers of Williams Lake for Easter Sunday dinner at Devon Gables and later attended a performance of "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World."

MR. AND MRS. HARNEY Tyler of Eastmoor Road had as guests over the Easter holiday week end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Edding of Bad Axe.

The Tyler-Dones Dizes of Old Orchard Drive and Mrs. Richard Bergmann of Darramoor Road were among those at Plum Hollow Golf Club last Thursday playing in the benefit card party staged by the Walnut Lake branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

MEMBERS OF Pine Lake Estate branch, WNFGA, have invited their husbands to attend tonight's meeting to hear a talk on landscaping.

They will meet at Pine Lake school. Mrs. Hugh Inland is hostess. Assisting her will be Mrs. George Frain and Mrs. Edward Ladenberger.

Board members of Brass Three Association will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of its secretary, Mrs. W. Hudson Ragsdale, 4882 Loch Lomond Drive.

Due to the inadvertent omission of a line of type in last week's column, the name of Mrs. Paul McGrath of Quorton Road was not mentioned as chairman of the committee working on the proposed Kirkwood bridge league.

BACK FROM vacations in Sarasota, Fla., are the John Frasers, George Patterson and Howard Hallases.

The Frasers with their sons, Randy and Doug, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallas of Interlaken Road spent two weeks at Longboat Key, while Siesta Key was the choice of the Pattersons and daughter, Patty, of Deering Drive.

Dawn and Carol Ziegler, daughters of the Dwan Zieglers of Stoddard Road were in Palm Beach visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Krause.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN Cawley of Pine Lake Road are back from a recent combination business and pleasure trip to New York City. They visited the United Nations and saw Paul Ford in "Never Too Late."

From F. A. O. Schwartz' famed top store at Fifth Avenue, Mrs. Cawley brought back for two-year-old Christopher a battery-operated Holstein cow that walks, switches its tail and moo!

MRS. JOHN THOMSON of Middlebelt Road was in Lansing March 25 for the annual legislative day of the Michigan Division of the American Association of University Women.

She was in the group of 18 women from the Birmingham area who had lunch with Rep. Henry M. Hogan, Jr., and Sen. Farrell Roberts at the Jack Tar Hotel.

Included in the day's activities was attendance at sessions of the senate and house of representatives.

THE ELECTRIC Book Study group of the AAUW met at Mrs. Thomson's Monday afternoon to hear Mrs. Fred Henry of Brady Blvd., discuss four books on India in a talk entitled "Why India?"

Cohostess with Mrs. Thomson was Mrs. Raphael Marlin.

THE EVENING bridge group of the New England Estates Women's Association will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eddy.

The association's afternoon bridge group met Tuesday for dessert and cards at the home of Mrs. Charles Peterson of E. Newland Drive.
