Couples Club 'Imports' French Flair for Party

By NITA HARD
 MA 6-3224

Oo-la-la, what a party the Couples Club have planned for April 17 at the Edgewood Country Club! The committee, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Froehlich and including Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sewell and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koska, report they're going the "limit" (which means as far as the club management will let them) with an "April In Paris" theme. French-inspired invitations urging members to bring guests and the very best of French cuisine for the buffet supper are out in the Parisian influence.

Cocktails will start at 7:15 p.m., dinner at 8:30 and the rest of the evening for dancing. Reservations may be made now with the Froehlichs.

SPRING FEVER is running high in the Franklin Community Club's association, too. They've planned a Spring Dance for May 15 at Forest Lake Country Club and details for this shortly. William Dickey is master-minding the occasion.

Tees and fashions combine for an "April Fancy" on April 23 at Orchard Lake Country Club, starting at 1 p.m.

Sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Franklin Community Church, the event will not only feature the latest fashions by Chudik's, but also a complete bridal party with local lassies showing "what to wear" in the traditional shower of rice. Mrs. Robert Hampton and Mrs. J. Ayer are taking reservations.

A DINNER meeting for Frank-

ROY ABERNETHY
AMC President Leads Scouts' Exposition

Roy Abernethy, 3940 Oakland Drive, Bloomfield Township, president of American Motors Corp., has been named chairman of the 1964 "Wonderful World of Scouting" Exposition which will be staged by Detroit-area council Scouts and leaders on June 5, 6, 7 at the Michigan State Fairgrounds. Some 25,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and leaders from Birmingham and other communities in the metropolitan Detroit area will be actively involved in staging the huge show. A great variety of Scouting skills, sciences and hobbies which are involved in the hundreds of merit badges, vocational guidance interests, advancements and hobbies found in the Scouting program—and in the imagination of "keen-age" youngsters, will be shown.

Equal Housing Topic of Talk By State Man

Irving J. Rubin, executive assistant to State Highway Commissioner John Mackie, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Council on Human Relations at The Community House on April 14, at 8 p.m. His subject will be "Equal Housing Opportunity."

Sailor Helps Ship Celebrate Birthday

Richard A. Hait, machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Hait of 1667 Maryland, Birmingham helped celebrate the 21st birthday of the destroyer USS Walker in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. Walker is presently conducting anti-submarine training operations in Hawaiian waters. She periodically serves a tour of duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

$38,900 for a home with a leaky faucet and a broken water softener?

Yes.

It's a "Birmingham" center hall colonial at 557 Puritan. The first floor has a large living room with fireplace, a dining room, kitchen (including new built-in GE dishwasher and disposal), a library or den, powder room, and fully screened porch.

Upstairs, an extra large master bedroom with dressing room and bath, and two other big bedrooms with another full bath.

Two more things you might get a kick out of: a wood-paneled recreation room with bar, and complete central air conditioning by Frigidair.

Suggest you drive by. If you like what you see, go back home or to the nearest pay phone and call MI 7-0226. Please don't come up and ring the doorbell; I may be repairing the leaky faucet and I want to look nice when you get here.

Oh, yes, about that water softener. Frankly, I spent $90 trying to get it to work right, then gave up when we started getting the "softer" Detroit water in Birmingham. (Maybe you can make a go-kart out of the tank for one of your kids.)

Note: This home has never had to be listed with a realtor. Hope this advertisement doesn't spoil that record.

In Village Players is scheduled for Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at Franklin school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spindler are arranging dinner details while Richard Coakley plans an entertainment to follow the usual business meeting conducted by President Harold Rowe.

On Tuesday, the Franklin Forum will have Jason Tipton, professor of music at Wayne State University, as their guest speaker who will give a preview of the 1964 Metropolitan Opera Season.

Tickets for the 1:30 p.m. program at the Franklin Community Church may be obtained at the door. The series of bi-monthly lectures has been sponsored by the Friends of the Franklin Library.

MEMBERS OF the Franklin branch of the WNFCA will be at their April 13 meeting, again at the church, to hear Mrs. Paul Zeigebauer's account of her recent trip to Alaska.

Hostesses for the day, which starts with lunch at noon, are Mrs. Paul Zeigebauer, Mrs. Edward Casden, Mrs. P. L. Jones, Mrs. L. Ziehl, Mrs. P. Alderghetti, Mrs. Donald Tracy and Mrs. G. C. Buchanan.

Last Thursday, both Mr. and Mrs. Zeigebauer entertained the Franklin Garden Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gilson of Indianwood Trail with their colored pictures of Alaska.

One of the nicest introductions to Franklin is an informal gathering to meet new neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, who will begin building this month on the ridge between Seaside and Drummond Court, were honored at a brunch Sunday morning, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gidley, up-the-road-a-piece on Seaside.

The brunch also introduced the Frank C. McCoards who have occupied the former Huffman home on Seaside since summer; and served also to re-welcome Mr. and Mrs. George Spahn after a five-year absence during which they lived in Chicago.

Having arranged all this "how-do-you-do," the Gidleys feel they can soon leave for their six-week trip to Europe—and things along Seaside road, at least, will go smoothly.

TRICKLING back to the Franklin fold as spring vacations end are the Preston Dozier, Jr., who visited several middle-Atlantic states on a college preview tour for their daughter, Nancy, now a senior at Groves High School.

Home again are the Donald Hackers of Colony Hill. A rendezvous with college daughter, Rutina, at their winter home in Naples, Fla., afforded fun in the sun.

The Adam Schubels of Willow-green left their "winter weariness" on Paradise Island and Nassau in the Bahamas.

And, a breath of the Bahamas was unexpectedly brought to the Hard household for 24 hours as our student son from Amherst, touched home base just long enough to report on his visit with brother Roger, now a permanent resident of the Bahamas.

BACK IN Wood Creek Farms are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips of Washouk after two days of jonquills, blooming forsythia and cherry blossoms in Virginia where they visited a daughter.

A meeting next Monday night of the Franklin Summer Camp committee should go smoothly enough. William Nunes has agreed to return as camp director and already indications are that many of last year's staff will be back to support his program for the little people.
