Residents Await Summer After Return from Florida

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Like the robins, many of our friends and neighbors have returned from the south, which can only mean one thing — summer isn't far away.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Borgeson of Riverside Drive were able to spend a month in Florida, including two weeks in Miami, and the Keys where Don caught a sailfish. They were joined by Bonnie Brook and Laurie at Lauderdale-by-the-Sea where, by the way, they ran into many Beverly people... for instance, their Dunblaine neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Woodsum, Jr., who chose that delightful spot as a vacation site for their five youngsters David, Diane, Susan, Steve, and Greg.

THE DEE M. Kennedy family of West Rutland chose Ft. Lauderdale as headquarters for their first trip to Florida. From there they made daily trips to such spots as Silver Springs, Miami and Cypress Gardens as well as taking time to swim and golf.

While there, the Kennedys visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Montgomery, former neighbors who moved to Florida last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Harcourt, of East Rutland, also stayed in Ft. Lauderdale area, treating young Judy, and Judy's 11th grade classmate Nan Murphy to two weeks in the Sun.

THE JOHN LeRoy family of Ingleswood Road traveled around Florida, showing son John, a sixth grader at Beverly School, such sights as the Everglades and the Monkey and Parrot Jungles; as well as the Edison home at Ft. Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Chinn and Susan and Jeff, of Pierce Road took their annual spring trip to Smithfield, N. C., to visit

MRS. H. W. SCHNETZKY

Other area women planning to attend the State Day activities are Mrs. Forbet S. Hascall, 548 Pine Hill, Birmingham, past president of Oakland alumnae, who will speak on the recently established Collegiate Assistance Fund; Vice President Mrs. F. Llewellyn Lutz, 16550 Amhurst, Birmingham; Mrs. C. Lyle, chairman of group II; Mrs. Lawrence S. Trevarrow, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Edward C. Wirth, 730 Wattle Road and Mrs. Everett Bolen, 32506 Nottingham Knowles, both of Birmingham. Delta Zeta's State Day will signify a double treat for the mistresses of ceremonies as Mrs. Schnetzky will see in the audience her daughter, Sandra, attending as a recent DZ pledge of Beta Rho sorority at Michigan State University.

former Michigan residents Dr. and Mrs. John Frevette. The two families usually get together two or three times during the year and a particular vacation lasted 10 days.

THE BURTON Elvigs of Kenosha Court drove north to Wisconsin and Minnesota with Laura, 12, Glenn, 10, David, 8, and John 3. There they visited their parents, and college friends from the university of Minnesota and returned home last week.

Last Saturday evening was not only Venetian night at the K of C Hall, but also the 38th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Williams of Marimoor Drive. Among those helping the Williams celebrate were the Ted Bonaventuras, the Aldo Patrias, and the Frank Valdis.

A SURPRISE housewarming for Floyd and Coe Abatt, who recently moved into the 70-year-old farmhouse behind Groves School on Evergreen Road, took place there last Friday evening.

The whole thing was engineered by their former neighbors on Sheridan and thereabouts. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Steele, the George Hillingers, Mrs. Pete Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Leininger, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilsher and the Bill Donnovers brought everything from a complete Italian dinner to an orchid for Coe.

And as if that weren't already quite a surprise, the group presented the Abatts with four stools for their breakfast nook.

A TELEPHONE bridge tournament was held at the Bellvue Trail home of Mrs. Robert Cubberley last week and not only did the women enjoy themselves, but they were also participating in a fund-raising affair sponsored by Birmingham Wellesley women.

Mrs. Jack Passino and Mrs. Cubberley were cotestants.

MISS MINOR will wed Douglas Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts of Detroit, on June 19.

She was honored with a shower on April 7 given by Jackie Paulus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Paulus of W. Glengary Circle.

The hostess and her guests included the young ladies who became lasting friends as 'Nerds' when they enjoyed little-girl parties and played spring baseball together.
