

St. Hugo Is Scene Of Morning Rites

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Karen Lucille Obrecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Obrecht of Keller Lane, Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills Church Saturday morning to become the bride of Jack T. Hermans. He is the son of Mrs. Kathryn Hermans of Brighton and Robert J. Hermans of Detroit.

The bride's gown was fashioned of imported silk organza accented with Alencon lace at the scooped neckline and as a front panel effect on the bell skirt with a chapel train. A spray of orange blossoms with crystal trim topped her bubble veil. The bridal bouquet was of hyacinths and variegated ivy centered by a white orchid.

Carole Obrecht, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Victoria Bartlett of Royal Oak; Michelle Bartlett of Dearborn and Diane Duquette of Ann Arbor.

THE MAID OF HONOR wore a street-length sheath dress of rose organza with a floor-length, bell shaped overskirt and a matching flowered headpiece. She carried rose carnations.

The gowns and headpieces of the bridesmaids were fashioned like the maid of honor in pink organza. Their flowers were pink carnations.

Lori Pierce, five-year-old cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She was dressed in pale pink organza and carried a nosegay of pink carnations with one red rose.

Brian Obrecht, five-year-old brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Blair Koehler of Farmington

was best man, and seating the guests were Steve Hermans, brother of the groom, of Detroit; Robert Obrecht, brother of the bride, of Ferndale and Harold Graham of Detroit.

The bride's mother wore a deep blue net with pale blue accessories and a small flowered hat. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother wore brown lace with a beige hat. Her corsage was also of pink roses.

FOLLOWING THE double ring ceremony, performed by the Very Rev. Magr. Edmond A. Fournier, a reception was held at Devon Gables. Among the guests attending the wedding was Mrs. A. LaBelle, the bride's 95-year-old great grandmother of Detroit and the eight grandparents of both the bride and the groom.

For traveling the bride chose an aqua three-piece knit suit. The newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor.

The University of Michigan was the first U.S. university to offer courses in automotive engineering, in 1913.

MRS. ROEDEL

Local Girl Is Married In Denver

Mr. and Mrs. William S. McNary of Birmingham announce the marriage of their daughter, Sidney Carlston, of Denver, Colo., to Harlan Dean Roedel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil P. Roedel of Denver.

The couple repeated their vows Saturday in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, a reception following in the Denver Athletic Club.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of ivory linen designed with an A skirt and empire bodice. Her elbow-length veil was of imported illusion and she carried white camellias, roses and hyacinths.

JAN KREHBIEL was maid of honor and Lloyd Roedel was his brother's best man. Bridesmaids included Mrs. William D. McNary and Mrs. Robert C. Utzinger, and ushers were Louis Gowen, Gerald Gowen and William D. McNary, brother of the bride.

Following a trip to southern Colorado and New Mexico, the couple will make their home in Denver.
