

Women in Action

Miss Richard Sets Date For Marriage

Bonnie Richard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Richard of Franklin has set May 9 as the date of her marriage to Garry Miller, son of Mrs. Eloy L. Miller of Bloomfield Hills and Eys D. Miller of Orinda, Calif.

The ceremony will take place in St. Owen's Catholic Church, with a reception following in the home of the bride-elect's parents.

BONNIE'S attendants — Mrs. Frank Cagle, Celia Smiley, Mrs. Arley Lowe, Karen Dahl and Jean Miller, sister of the bridegroom-elect — entertained at a kitchen shower in her honor Monday in the home of Mrs. Frank Uhas in Bloomfield Village.

Mrs. Marvin Hahn of Metamora will be hostess at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday, and on April 25 Mrs. Fred Hicks of Birmingham will entertain at a luncheon.

Preceding these festivities, Mrs. William Cutting of Birmingham honored Bonnie at an around-the-clock shower.

Foster Home To Be Scene Of Spring Tea

A song of spring will be the keynote for the Williams House annual spring tea planned for Wednesday, April 29, from 2 to 5 p.m. at the residence, 548 E. Grand Blvd.

Senior board members of Williams House, which is an Episcopalian residential foster home for teen-age girls and a Torch Drive agency, will officiate as hosts in honor of all those who have worked with and contributed to the well-being of the young girls living there.

Mrs. Dean Draper of Bloomfield Hills has keyed the springtime theme around her color motif of daffodil yellow and delicate green which will be used in floral arrangements and decorations throughout the house.

AS CHAIRMAN of arrangements for the tea Mrs. Draper has asked the following members from the Bloomfield-Birmingham area to assist during the afternoon: Mrs. Archie Crowley, Mrs. Harry Dumville, Mrs. Leslie Green, Mrs. Graham John Graham and Mrs. George Ranford.

Among the guests of honor will be the teachers, social workers, members of the clergy and representatives of the Episcopal Church women of the diocese, who annually give so much of their efforts to help provide a happier way of life for these young girls.

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2552

Date of the Torry Carnival is May 16. Mrs. Frank Allen and Mrs. Robert Gee are co-chairmen of the PTA sponsored affair.

A new feature this year will be outdoor activities, such as three-legged races, sack races and horseshoes. The gym is to be turned into a cafeteria where hot dogs, hamburgers and ice cream will be available. Room mothers are in charge of twenty game rooms, including such favorites as the duck pond, cake walk, bean bag, shooting galleries, treasure chest and wishing well.

Dads, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will also work at the Carnival, proceeds of which finance activities of Torry PTA and buy equipment such as movie projectors and blackout curtains for the school.

SATURDAY excursions during the month of April will have the Cub Scouts in Pack 1021 looking up, up, up. Starting off earth-bound April 4, fourteen carloads of boys headed for Brodhead Naval Armory where they were taken on a tour of the U. S. submarine "Zero".

Saturday the Cubs had a Kite Derby. They flew their kites high in the sky over Eton Park. The boys go to Selfridge Air Force Base April 18. Their eyes still focused on the sky, the Pack will visit Cranbrook Observatory April 24 and gaze at the stars.

Parishioners of St. Columban Church, Birmingham, presented a variety show "Melodies in Mischievous" in Oak Park High School auditorium Friday night and Saturday night.

Talented people from this neighborhood contributed to the success of the show. Behind the scenes were Mrs. Jack K. Monteth, who was in charge of costumes. Mr. Monteth was stage manager and Mrs. Earl J. Gaultier was responsible for properties. Ticket chairman was William F. Magee, Jr.

On stage performing were Mrs. John R. LeVasseur, Barbara Kwany, Mrs. Frederick S. Saubach and Mrs. Monteth. Also in the spotlight were "Brickettes", John R. LeVasseur and Joseph S. Hornack.

WHEN ROYAL OAK Lions Club presented their 17th annual who come to live at Williams House from broken homes and deprived backgrounds.

A corps of these teen-agers will also be on hand to assist during the afternoon, acting as escorts and guides for guests who are interested in making a grand tour of the House and its facilities.

Minstrel Show in Dondoro High School auditorium Tuesday night and Wednesday night, Peter Janetta, 11, was one of the featured dancers, and his cousin David Fouza, 13, was also in the show. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Janetta, 1469 Holland and David lives in Clawson.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, April 16, 1964

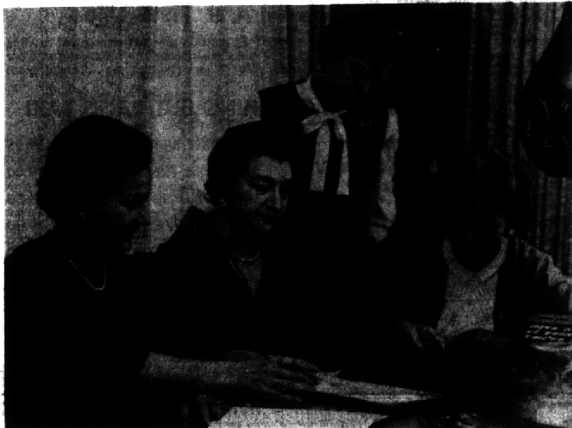

Have you ever noticed that many married couples, when waiting to order food, and while eating it in a public place, so often refrain from carrying on conversation? Yet these couples, when courting and/or a while after marriage, certainly did plenty of talking—even as you and I. This is a subject that some learned professor ought to research... don't you think?

SECTION
CC

FOR JESUIT SEMINARY ASSOCIATION: Members of U. of D. High School Unit, Jesuit Seminary Association, will entertain at a champagne toast Sunday, April 26, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Taylor, 211 Lowell Ct., Bloomfield Hills. Donations from the tea will be used to establish a bursar in honor of the Rev. Fr. Maurice J. Hunsey, S.J. Assisting the hostess (center) with arrangements are Mrs. Edward Stetger (left) and Mrs. Hanley Taylor.

FOR UNITED FOUNDATION: The recruitment of Torch Drive volunteers in Oakland County will be directed by Mrs. Robert S. Olson of Birmingham. Mrs. Olson has already begun to sign up women volunteers who will pay personal visits to Oakland County homes on behalf of the Torch Drive, Oct. 20 through Nov. 12. Assisting her (from left) at a kick-off coffee last week were Mrs. Edward L. Sheehan, Mrs. Robert C. White and Mrs. Paul Cridler.

Women's Auxiliary Plans Dinner Party for Husbands

Birmingham Country Club will be the scene of a dinner dance Saturday evening when members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society and their husbands gather.

Cocktails will be served from 6:30 until the 8 p.m. dinner. Herbie Ross and his orchestra will supply the music for dancing.

Chairman of this year's event is Mrs. Arnold L. Brown, assisted by Mrs. James R. Quinn.

AMONG THOSE WITH their reservations are Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Westfall, Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Olson, Dr. and Mrs. J. Paul Conkley, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Fox and Dr. and Mrs. Edward E. Elder.

Others include Dr. and Mrs. L. Jerome Fink, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Sateromson, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Varbedian, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Albert, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hague and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Lichtwardt.

The next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be the annual meeting and installation of officers. It will be held May 6 at Devon Gables at 6:30 p.m.

Miss Van der Meer Plans Summer Rites

At a recent dinner in their home, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Van der Meer, 3226 Interlaken Drive, Orchard Lake, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Joan, to Robert Frank Chapman of Redwood City, Calif. Their marriage is planned for August and they will reside in California.

Joan is a 1963 graduate of the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Chapman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapman of Bolton, Mass., and was graduated from Boston University. His fraternity is Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mu Phi Epsilon

A number of Birmingham women are planning to attend a Mu Phi Epsilon meeting Monday, April 20, in the home of Mrs. C. E. Zech of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Included in the local group are Mrs. Saul Bernat, Mrs. Archie Brown, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Knack and Mrs. Walter Rafter.

Ladies are bowing to the men at Birmingham Country Club next week, their bid for acquire attention taking the form of luncheon and a rollicking musical revue Tuesday at the club.

Manager John Brennan is tailoring the menu to masculine taste and the musical, "Let Yourself Go", (presented by Delta Airlines) is lively enough to satisfy both guys and dolls—as a matter of fact, one of the performers, Dick Sasso, performed in the Damon Runyon classic.

Other Broadway stars in the act include Judy Corigan, Joan Dunham and Ken Hamilton.

According to Mrs. Henry F. Fett, ladies social chairman, "Let Yourself Go" spoofs travel through the ages, in song and satire, parody and playlet. The audience will be treated to Adam and Eve making vacation plans

Members of St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Birmingham, are sponsoring a benefit performance of "A Man For All Seasons" April 20 at the Fisher Theater. Mrs. Ralph in the Garden of Eden, John Smith bantering with a comely Pocahontas, Martha Washington admonishing George that "NOBODY goes to Quebec in the winter anymore!"

ANN BALTZWELL

Incidentally, the gals are foregoing door prizes for this party, so the men won't be uncomfortable either their number with a straw bag or some other equally feminine frivolity. Airplanes, luggage and resort wear will be woven into the decorations, planned by party chairmen Mrs. Marshall Chambers, Mrs. Charles Bauerst and Mrs. Henry Dahlquist.

WITH ALL THIS local emphasis on Delta next week, we wonder if club members are aware that a Birmingham girl, Ann Baltzwell, has just won her wings and is now a stewardess with the lines?

Based in Chicago, Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baltzwell of 17195 Birchwood, Beverly Hills. Before going to Atlanta, Ga., for training, she attended the University of Detroit. M. E. M.

AOPi Plans Workshop In Ypsilanti

The alumnae and collegians of Alpha Omicron Pi will meet at McKinney Hall, Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, April 25 at 8 a.m. Workshops are planned for the morning. Luncheon is at noon. Mrs. Melvin L. Allen of Birmingham is in charge of decorations. Miss Vivian Kresky of Bloomfield Hills has issued the invitations.

The program and theme for the day will be "The OAPi Image", to be presented by a collegian, an alum, a mother and a national officer.

A TRAVELING award of a silver bowl will be presented by Omicron Pi to the outstanding alumnae in the district. This is given for both service to the sorority and the community. Mrs. William H. Farinagame of Birmingham was formerly presented this award. This year's is a well guarded secret until the luncheon. Scholarship awards are given to outstanding collegians achieving the highest scholastic average in their chapter. Also an award will be presented to the outstanding senior from each chapter. Those attending from Birmingham will be Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Ralph Houghes and the alumnae president Mrs. Tom Ward.

Summer and Shade Umbrella Table and Matching Chairs

A favorite Meadowcraft design of comfort and charm for year-round long-lasting durability. Pastel colors.

48" Round Table $78.00

42" Round Table $49.50

Matching Chairs $29.50 each

UMBRELLAS from $49.95

For Outdoor Durability and Beauty

Rust-Proof Terrace Group . . .

Decorate an important focal point in your garden with pastel Meadowcraft furniture and really enjoy your outdoor living!

Round Cocktail Table

$34.95

Straight Chair

$29.50 each

Settee, $49.50

Spring Chair, $34.95 each

Meadowcraft Dining Groups

Complete 5-Piece Group $119

Glass-top dining table and 4 matching chairs in your choice of 11 frame finishes and many fabric selections by special order. Guaranteed rust-proof for 10 years!

7-piece sets with rectangular table, 34"x50" . . . $159.50

Interior Decorating Consultants

Open Thursday, Friday, Monday Evenings 'til 9 P.M.

just south of Orchard Lake Road — Parking Free

1480 S. Telegraph Ad., Pontiac, Mich.

FE 2-8348

Weighing Their Response

Bowen (left) and Mrs. William Baldwin spent a busy week mailing out tickets as reservations rolled in. Proceeds will go into the all-purpose fund of the church.