Junior Scouts Win Awards

At a recent court of awards held by Junior Girl Scout Troop 99, prints badges were presented to Laura Magnuson, Nancy Search, Anne Miller, Jane Miller, Patti Patterson, Jan Humes and Shawn Sweeney.

Hobbies badges went to Laurie Perrin, Janice Orrett, Debby Wyke, Linda Whitehead, Vickie Vaglavik and Patti Patterson.

Carol Whitmer earned her swimming badge.

All the girls listed above also received the rambler badge which also went to Lisa Baylis, Kathy McClelland, Marilyn Mallik, Janis Hammond, Jean Swankel, Barbara Chawry, Sue Lindsey, Kristi Drappers, Ann Westcott, Connie Quatto, Lynne Gardner and Christine Nickel.

Guest Lecturer

Mary Wellington Gale, member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak on Christian Science: Its Assurance of Security in the World Today at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Franklin-Meadowdale. The lecture, scheduled for Friday at 8:15 p.m., will take place in the church, located at Maple and Inkster.

Garden Club

Members of the Little Garden Club will try their hand at a "Do-It-Yourself Garden Sculpturing" program. Mrs. Alice Burlingame will lead the instruction.

The meeting will be held on Monday, April 20, at the Michigan Bank Building on West Maple Road in Birmingham.

Mrs. John Longley of Bingham Road and Mrs. William Grimes of Oakhills Drive will be co-hostesses for the day.

'April Fancy' is Scene Of Fashion Show, Tea

NITA HARD
M.A. 6-3224

Franklin women modeling for the "April Fancy" fashion show and tea being held April 23 by the women's societies of the Franklin Community Church will convey a lovely image.

Coiffed smartly by hair stylists Barbara and Gerald Haynes and parading their ensembles offered by Chick's of Birmingham, the women of Franklin will be seen at their best one p.m. at Orchard Lake Country Club.

The fashion show and tea will provide furnishings for the new church parlor included in the Franklin Church expansion program.

Among those modeling are Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. Donald Watkins, Mrs. Kenneth Callie, Mrs. Calvin Brown, Mrs. T. F. Spooner and Mrs. Donald Hogan.

Mrs. Robert J. Hampton is general chairman of the affair which will also feature a bridal party with Lynn Egan, Nancy Dotter and Jan Heidemann representing the younger set.

If residents haven't seen the large banner across Franklin Road announcing the gastronomic treat, they most certainly have been approached by one of the eager young ticket salesmen who will also be doubling as waiters at the supper.

The Panicle Supper, since its beginning six years ago, has proved to be an extremely popular event and financial success for the society.

VACATIONERS without school children to hurry them homeward last week have returned to Franklin at their own leisurely pace.

Bronzed by Florida sun in new Village President, Richard Ober-schultz, Celebrating son Dan's graduation from Northern Michigan College at Traverse City, the Ober-schultzes headed for the Keys and spent a week fishing and beach-combing.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Webb of River Road have returned from a relaxing holiday at Las Vegas, Nev.

The Norman Curran of Captain's Lane have been vacationing in West Virginia.

A FINAL REMINDER — the Franklin Couples Club will have their supper dance at Edgewood Country Club this Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle R. Ferguson of Tewksbury Lane, Birmingham, have returned from a two months' vacation in W. Palm Beach, Fla.

Y Slates Teen Dance

In there a need for a centralized teen center in Birmingham? The Birmingham YMCA has planned an inter-city dance on Saturday night to see what the response will be.

Sponsored by the Y and the eighth and ninth grade students of the Berkshire, Barnum, and Derby Schools, the dance has been organized by the students with the cooperation of Chuck Rutherford and Chet McLemore of the Y.

SIXTEEN STUDENT representatives met recently with the three junior high school principals declaring their need for a common meeting place and planned evening recreation, and the idea of Saturday evening dances at the Y evolved.

The first dance, held from 8 p.m. to 10:45 p.m. will be followed by others if successful.

It will be chaperoned by parents, and dress will be casual. The 50c admission fee will be used to help set up a fund for future dances.

March of Dimes Sets County Confab

Oakland County chapter, March of Dimes, will hold its annual meeting April 20 in the Pontiac East Temple at 6:30 p.m.

The main speaker will be Dr. Carl S. Winters, member of General Motors lecture bureau.

A former crime commissioner for Michigan, radio minister for 24 years, and Chicago's 3rd Bow chairman, Dr. Winters draws from a vast background of knowledge to instruct his audience.
