

It's Happening at BAA

Piano Jazz Is Topic on OU Campus

A "Happening about Italy" is being staged at the Bloomfield Arts Association, 1516 S. Granbrook, Birmingham, at 8:30 p.m. Friday. Cyril Miles and Harriet Berg have combined the talents of Mrs. Miles' art students and faculty at Highland Park College and Mrs. Berg's fellow dancers at Wayne State University for this "concert" event.

Not all the activity will be on the right side of the footlights. The audience will actually participate in the activities, viewing dancers, films, painters, actors and miscellaneous events that make up a happening.

performance of a random selection of events and effects, largely commonplace, that by chance combinations give renewed insight into their meanings . . . or lack of meaning.

It tends to make a provocative mystery out of the everyday. Some Happenings would seem totally formless and most confusing, but this so-called art form has been around two years now in its current form and is beginning to develop in various directions.

Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Berg, with their husbands, toured Italy and returned, exhilarated with what they describe as "a glorious jumble of experiences."

Bert Konowitz of Columbia University, New York City, will be on the Oakland University campus Tuesday to present a day-long institute on jazz improvisation for piano teachers.

This will be the third annual Piano Teachers' Institute planned by piano teachers in the area in cooperation with the university's Music Department and Division of Continuing Education. Last year's institute brought more than 100 teachers to the campus.

Local music teachers and musicians working with the university on an Advisory Committee for the institute include Robert Bates, Bloomfield Hills, music director, Christ Church, Granbrook; Walter Schiro, director, Birmingham Conservatory of Music; L. Robert Slesser, minister of music, First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham; and Mrs. Teruko Yamasaki, Bloomfield Hills.

THEY SAY they use the Happening form to share with the audience the same chaotic festivity and heightened response to Italy that they enjoyed.

Mrs. Howard J. McCarty, Happening chairman, and Mrs. George O. Cutter, BAA program chairman, have made the huge gallery and classroom areas available to this experimental event.

FAREWELL TO AN OLD SOLDIER

Today they carried an old soldier through the rain. As if tears shed in all the long gone wars Had come to cleanse him in departing. Some walked in sad remembrance of A craggy face A coronop pipe.

With the silent military procession Bearing him to final peace. Their feet seemed to echo his words, DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY.

His flag bearer followed behind him for the last time. Let us hope the flag is passed To one who shall defend it with the special strength Of this Old Soldier.

NEW Tallhedge

(Landy)
Rhamnus frangula colchicaea (Zone 2)
Plant Patent No. 1888

Here, at last, is a perfect solution to many hedge problems. TALLHEDGE forms a compact, narrow hedge up to 12 to 15 feet tall, and only about 4 feet wide. It need never be trimmed to be neat, but may easily be sheared to as low as 4 feet.

Foliage is dense, lustrous dark green. Attractive berries change through cream, pink and red to black, appear in succession all summer.

Cold's TALLHEDGE is a form of the highly respected thornless, hardy and adaptable Glossy Buckthorn. It fills a long-standing need for a good, tall, narrow hedge or accent plant.

We suggest planting on 2' or 2 1/2' centers.
