

Quaker Ceremony Unites Miss Hunt, H. A. Coffin

A Quaker ceremony in the chapel at Western Reserve Academy, Hudson, Ohio, united Patricia Ann Hunt and Howard Aldridge Coffin II Saturday.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Albert Hunt of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Fiske Coffin, 750 Indianwood Road, Lake Orion.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Coffin wore a white organza floor-length gown with chapel train enhanced with seed pearls and lace applique on the bodice and cap sleeves. Her tulle veil was caught in an organza bow, and she carried a spray of white delphinium with clusters of Japanese iris and stephanotis.

THE BRIDE'S SISTER, Margaret Susan Hunt, was chosen as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jacqueline Ann Lewis of Cambridge, Mass.; Gail Eugenia Billings, New York City; Stephanie Myrtle Carroll, Elmira, N. Y.; and Mrs. Coffin Alderson, the groom's sister, of Lake Orion.

They wore also classic A-line fashions in blue and green flowered silk print, while a tulle wide headpiece was caught in a bow of matching material. Their flowers were blue, duplicating the bride's design.

The groom's twin brother, Tristram DeForest Coffin, served as best man. Ushers were Fred DeForest Coffin and William Hall Coffin, of Hollywood, Calif., the groom's brothers; Nicholas Blazer Hunt, the bride's brother of Washington, D. C., and Theodore L. Becker of Birmingham.

A reception at Twin Lakes Country Club in Twinsburg, Ohio followed the ceremony. For her Southern honeymoon,
