Residents on Hand for Red Wing Loss

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3287

Root as we Red Wing fans did Saturday evening, (and at times it was difficult, especially if you happened to be blessed, as we were with a Maple Leaf fan in the next seat) all our cheers couldn't bring a victory for the Red Wings.

The hard-fought battle was seen by Lathrup residents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hodges, their sons Robert and Kenneth, with his guest, Larry Gardner and Mrs. Eleanor Slavik.

Others on hand were the Howard Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Antonelli, the George Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Cavaret, and Mrs. Robert Raich and the Walter Baughmans.

THE LATHRUP Women's Bowling League will conclude its season on April 28 with a luncheon at Red Run Country Club. At that time trophies will be awarded to the winning team, the "Lions."

Members of the team are Mrs. Fred Froehlich, Mrs. Ted Mansfield, Mrs. Harry Simpson, Mrs. Fred Gendek and Mrs. Ward Beauchamp.

The high series trophy will be awarded to Mrs. Doris Greenline. Mrs. Robert Kengel will also receive one for her high single game of 224.

The new officers for the 1964-65 season are Mrs. Frederick Byington, president; Mrs. Bert Farkas, vice president; Mrs. Harold Wassat, secretary and Mrs. Harry Reisinger, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Heller of San Rosa were hosts last week and to three couples at their cottage at East Tawas. Joining the Hellers for a relaxing week were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heaton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Munson and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vogel.

enjoyed a visit with former Lathrup Village residents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes, who have been making their home in Boca Raton for the past two years.

EIGHT LADIES arrived at the Clarence Crenshaw home on East California last Tuesday afternoon with gifts to celebrate Mrs. Crenshaw's birthday. This wonderful gesture has been going on among these same nine ladies for several years.

A "Ryning" trip, back and forth in one day, was made Saturday by Jack Howard of Rossland and Robert Payne of Berkshire, Southfield, as they could participate in the Peterson Classic, (a top bowling tournament).

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Humphrey of Coral Gables drove to Chicago for the week end. Mr. Humphrey also participated in the same tournament.

SOME OF the dance clubs of Lathrup have concluded their festivities for the season, perhaps in favor of golf or gardening, but the Village Square Dance Club gathered this month and will conclude their fun next month.

Committee chairmen for the April dances were Mr. and Mrs. Vince Zetell. Their committee included the John Leavers, the Gene Chmists, the Jack Converses and the Ray Darjizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moses were guests of the Ern Ladnigs; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peltz came with the Ray Darjizes; the Eugene Zellens were hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baribeau; and the Charles Rembuses brought Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gasko.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cadell, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hemming, the Jack Shelys and the Ralph Olsons were guests of the club. New members Mr. and Mrs. Dick Saunders were also there.

TWO COLOR movies entitled "1963 U. S. Open Golf Championship" and "The 1963 World Series," were enjoyed by members of the Optimist Club of Southfield when it met on April 16. Guests for the evening were the coaches of the Optimist Parks and Recreation Basketball League.

Winner of the Southfield Optimist oratorical contest was Francis Giffard of San Jose Boulevard, Lathrup Village.

THIS WEEK being "Arbor Week," the Girl Scouts from the Lathrup and Southfield areas are doing their share in the "help beautify Southfield" campaign.

The girls have undertaken the job of planting trees in various sections. On Monday, Brownie Troop No. 536 planted trees at the Community House and the Junior Girl Scout Troop planted at the fire hall.

Yesterday, Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 363 and Troop No. 10 did their planting at the Lathrup Post Office and St. Michael school grounds respectively.

Today Southfield Post Office will receive their gift and Friday the Brownies of St. Michael will do their planting at the fire hall at 12 Mile and Southfield.

More than 100 senior Girl Scouts, leaders and dads are expected to participate in Camp Nazrin Work Day on April 25. They will arrive between 9:30 and 10 a.m. bringing hatchets, hammers, shovels and other tools of a clean-up brigade.

A group of 20 older Boy Scouts, members of the Order of the Arrow, will also contribute their services. The young men are honor campers who have put in a minimum of 20 days and nights
