BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, April 23, 1964

When people travel they generally are in the mood and spirit of friendliness, neighborliness. More often than not they are quite willing to help others—even strangers. It does seem that this environment of friendliness dominates folks when they are away from home. How splendid it would be if this attitude were more evident among us when we are in our own neighborhoods!

Fitzgerald Family Moves Into Echo Road Home

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Fitzgerald returned from a vacation trip just before Easter and immediately began making arrangements to move into their new home on Echo Road in Bloomfield Hills. They moved April 1 from their home of 13 years in Beverly Hills.

The Fitzgeralds are longtime residents. They attended Kingswood and Cranbrook and now have Ann, 15, and Hal, 13, attending the same schools. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald graduated from the University of Michigan. The other children are Greg, 11, and Kathy, 9. Mr. Fitzgerald is business manager for the Pontiac Press. The family enjoys skiing, swimming and boating in their leisure time.

Summer Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Utman Hurst of Morgantown, W. Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Raye, to Dr. Edward Albert Zakaib, son of Mrs. George Zakaib of Charleston, W. Va., and the late Mr. Zakaib.

The bride-elect, a teacher in the Birmingham School System, received her bachelor and master's degrees from West Virginia University. She was president of Alpha Xi Delta sorority while at the school, and has taught at Groves High School and Berkshire Junior High.

Her fiancé was graduated from West Virginia University and received his medical degree from the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond. He served both the freshman and junior medical school class as president as well as his fraternity, Kappa Alpha. A summer wedding is planned.

Culver Is Coming to Town

The famous Black Horse Troop of Culver Military Academy is about to descend on our town again, giving a demonstration of horsemanship at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club Saturday.

Highlight features will be presentation of the colors by the Standard Guard, a precision drill by the Lancer Platoon (honor organization of the famed Black Horse Troop) which is climaxed by hair-raising jumps through rings of fire; dare devil rough riders and a mounted gymkhana (exciting skill games on horseback).

THE CADETS (girls!) will arrive by special Culver bus around noon on Saturday, spend the afternoon rehearsing, have dinner in the club's Culver Room and then, following the show, be on hand for the dance planned in their honor.

They'll be honor guests again on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Olsen will be hosts at a breakfast for 70. Rick Olsen, captain of Troop A and first lieutenant of the Lancer Platoon, will have as his houseguests Ward Lay of Dallas, Tex., who is squadron commander and captain of the Lancers; Harley Cluxton of Lake Forest, Ill., and Jeff Hill of Zanesville, O.

Dance to Honor Oakland Hills' New Members

A spring formal dinner dance at Oakland Hills Country Club will honor the new members on May 2, from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

Before dancing to the music of Eddie Schick and his orchestra, new members will meet for cocktails in the board of directors room to greet directors and members.

Entertainment committee for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Carter A. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Gary B. Hogan Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John J. Aberg, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Jolly, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. John G. Piceu.

Y Sets Parley

A delegation of 90 members of the YWCA of metropolitan Detroit will attend their 23rd national convention in Cleveland, April 20-25.

Among those attending the convention from Birmingham are Mrs. Grace D. Carrothers, 556 Tooting Lane; Mrs. John K. Ormond, 21060 Martin Court; and Mrs. L. Irving Woolson, 715 N. Giengary Road.

Family Fiesta Fun

Marygrove College coeds have slated a Family Fiesta this Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m., and again from 7:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Birmingham students participating include Christine Ackley, Millicent Fortuna, Katherine Kavanaugh, Joan Cusiance, Sarah Walker and Rose Moorman.

A COCKTAIL party will be held at the club preceding the demonstration honoring members of the faculty who'll be on tour with the 44 cadets. They include Col. and Mrs. Gerald J. Graham, Col. and Mrs. William R. Robinson and Capt. and Mrs. Raymond K. Walmoth. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Moon will receive with them.

The exhibition is jointly sponsored by the Culver Club of Greater Detroit and Bloomfield Open Hunt. Parents with boys interested in attending the event may call Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Olsen (he's president of the Culver Club) of Marblehead Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Both the Moons and the Olsens will house cadets while they're in town, other facilities offering guest bedrooms including Mr. and
