

Eastover Spring Dance Slated for Friday Night

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

The Eastover spring dance slated for Friday evening from 9 to 12 p.m. will have a few surprises in store for those attending the popular school dance of the year.

Dance music for the evening will be furnished by the Bob Bruce Orchestra. A special floor show will highlight the evening with many talented area residents participating. Nick and Claudia Dean, instructors at the Jack Barnes Dance Studio, will also be present to give dancing tips.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or through any of the committee members, the Richard Phelps of Satterlee Drive, the Keith Terrys or Dr. and Mrs. Jay Van Zoeren of Rock Spring Drive and the B. J. Pitts of Can-dletick. Chairman for the dance event are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall of Satterlee Drive.

THE CONTINENTAL Dance Club will present its spring "Butterfly Ball" on Saturday evening at the Hickory Grove School.

The theme of butterflies will be carried out in the colorful name tags, wall and table decorations. This will be a "special guest night" for the 70 couples who are members of the dance club. Each couple has invited an interested couple in the Bloomfield Hills School District to join them for the gala evening of dancing to the music of the Danny Baker Orchestra.

Committee chairman planning the ball are the Carl Qualmanns of Lenox Road, the Henry Prices, the Robert Weisenbergers and the Alton Grays of Bloomfield

Hills and the Alex Morris of Pontiac.

Area couples interested in the dance group that holds four dances a year may contact any of the above committee members for details.

COCKTAIL PARTIES preceding the Butterfly Ball will be held throughout the week. Those entertaining will be the James Prices of Brady Drive, the Henry Greens of Ilena Drive, the Gene Deans of Irena Drive, and the Max Kings of North Adams Road.

A group of North Adams area residents interested in learning the latest dance steps have decided to meet on Friday evenings at the Hyland Drive home of the Bruce Deans for instruction, followed by refreshments.

Jim Sempawski and his sister, Jane, dance instructors at the Hill Hills have the group their first lesson Friday evening. In the group are the Lewis Vellas of Lansing, the Robert Clark of Kentonore Drive, the William Hunters of Hyland Drive, the Max Kings of North Adams Road.

A SERIES of dinner parties, showers and teas are slated for bride-elect Miss Sarah Jane Smith of Oakhill Drive during the next month. Miss Smith, a junior at Eastern Michigan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shirley Smith of Oakhill Drive.

Her fiancé, Richard Haynes May, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. May of Moore May of Detroit. A candlelight wedding will take place on June 20 at St. James Episcopal Church in Birmingham. The reception will follow at the Smith residence.

Mrs. Frank Seichter of Birmingham and Mrs. Robert Healy of Grosse Pointe cohosted a luncheon and kitchen shower on Saturday afternoon honoring Miss Smith.

THE BRIDESMAIDS and their mothers recently entertained at a luncheon and "around the clock shower." They were Mrs. R. B. Lucas and Judy Lucas, Mrs. John Collins and Nancy Collins, all of Birmingham.

On Friday evening Mrs. Jack Fitzgerald of Detroit and Mrs. Lynn Hoiser of Oak Park have invited 15 guests to a dinner party and silver-crystal shower honoring the couple. On May 6, Mrs. Clifford Mesey of E. Valley Chase Drive will host a luncheon and linen shower for Miss Smith inviting 15 of her friends.

An afternoon tea and pantry shower will take place at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. T. Hollister on May 9. Each of the guests will bring copies of her favorite recipes for Miss Smith's future use.

The last of the parties honoring the couple will be given at the Birmingham home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller on Saturday evening, May 16. It will be a "bar shower."

ANOTHER NOTE of interest in the Donald Smith household is the arrival on April 2 of the Smiths' "first" grandchild. She is Sara Wendell Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David M. Smith of Ann Arbor.

Four Charnwood area residents decided it was time for a "spring get-acquainted coffee" for the subdivision and began making phone calls.

On Wednesday morning the four hostesses greeted their neighbors at the Charnwood Drive home of Mrs. William Heston. Cohosting were Mrs. Roger Blackwood and Mrs. John Ball of Charnwood Drive and Mrs. William Dewey of Anslow Lane.

ANOTHER "get-acquainted morning coffee" was hosted by Mrs. Charles Thompson of Massfield last Friday for her neighbors. Introduced at the coffee was Mrs. Dwayne Miller a recent newcomer to Massfield Drive.

On the slate are president, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shorsy of Northover Drive; president-elect, Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce of Whittier Drive; treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Botke of Tuthury Drive; corresponding secretary, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlson of N. Valley Chase Drive; recording secretary, Dr. and Mrs. Masamichi Suzuki of N. Valley Chase Drive. Past presidents were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith of Charnwood Drive.

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON

Signs of spring in Michigan—yellow and white jonquils peering shyly at tall evergreens; fat robins singing rapturously; lites; families on the go, moving, visiting, traveling; cold weather, an occasional warm day for a seaser. Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Sineoli, 1908 Sheffield, entertained houseguests from Lexington, Ky. recently. Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald, Mrs. Sineoli's sister and brother-in-law and their two children, Denise and Billy, were in Birmingham for a ten-day visit.

During a 30-day trip South recently Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharpe, 1928 Sheffield, stopped at St. Petersburg; visited for a while with their niece, Mrs. Paul Schriner in Orlando; and also spent some time in Daytona Beach. On their way home, the Sharpes stayed in Washington, D. C. while the Cherry Blossom festival was on.

They found it was impossible to get near John F. Kennedy's grave because of the long lines of people always waiting, but they visited Georgetown and saw where Mrs. Kennedy and John and Caroline are living.

MR. AND MRS. Arthur U. Johnson, 1627 Sheffield, have sold their home and are moving to Rochester, N. Y., when school is out in June. The Johnsons have lived in Birmingham for 12 years and have three daughters; Judy and Patty, who attend Our Lady Queen of Mary's school, and Karen, 3 years old. Mr. Johnson is with Xerox Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Rondeau and family traveled to Teahany, Ill. recently to visit daughter Claudette, 15, who is at the convent of the Holy Spirit.

Mrs. Richard L. Houghton, 1665 Mansfield, was honor guest at a stork shower given by Mrs. Charles A. Rondeau in her home, 3181 1/2 Verona Circle, April 15. Mrs. Houghton's friends gave her a stroller for her baby, expected early in May.

THE ROY E. Shoups, 1932 Melton, are being transferred to Pittsburgh, Pa., their home town. Mr. and Mrs. Shoup are having a new house built in North Hills, a suburb of Pittsburgh, and hope to move in as soon as school is out in June. They have lived in Birmingham for nine years.

David Brown won first prize for the highest flying kite in the Kite Derby held by Cub Pack 1021 at Eton Park April 11. David's home-made kite was judged the most unusual and his box kite flew the highest.

Jeffrey Stinson's home-made kite was the most beautiful and also flew the highest in the home-made class.

Prizes were also awarded the runners-up; Billy Dow, Larry Martin, Kevin Dehitt, Michael Schroeder and Joe Moore. The kite that disappeared into outer space and the one that was caught on a house-top half a mile away were disqualified.
