At the Lanes

Doug Swords is regarded as probably the stylist of the Northwood Lanes Senior House. Though a first year man in the league, Swords has smashed the pins for a 196 average and highs of 275 and 712.

HIS ABILITY was evidenced last week as he rolled 301, 245, 219 in 605 to lead Dick Crossman's 1 & 2. Swords also rolled a four-point triumph over Birmingham Drug, 1,012, 1,072-3,980 to 2,798. Supporting Swords were Larry Milford with 215, 247-267, and Ray Kourou with 233 in 684.

Reichhold Chemicals stumbled into its first bad night in several months as it lost all four points to Bob Drabik's Birmingham Bowl team, 2801 - 2,660. A champion Dave Cashman's steady 204, 203, 205 in 614 paced Bowl, while Reichhold's scorers were Howard Reiton with 202, 223 in 696 and Al Karpitzki with 211, 221 in 583.

Encountering difficulty with Karl Williams' 227, 248 in 670, Michigan Machine split with Tri-Vending, 2,942-3,835. Machine's big men came through with strong performances as Jon Sevald shot 238, 208, 215-655. Vern Wendell 202, 254-537, and Bob Costew 216-597.

Northwood Lanes took advantage of the Machine-Tri-Vending split and won four-points from H. R. Black, 2,889-2,778, to stretch lead under first place lead to three points. Bowling with one member absent, Northwood was led by John Eisenhart's 208, 204-596, Jim Mitchell Jr.'s 214-597, Bill Brewster 227-583, and Don Dobranski's 201-574.

TORRENCE OIL utilized solid team bowling and Joe Kiley's 218, 213, 202-628 to defeat Conkling-Palmer, 2,802-2,711. Northwood Lanes took advantage of the high individual series of the night, 206, 266, 213-679.

Wayne Murphy's 214, 247, 213, in a 674 led Donar's Pizzeria to a victory over Pierce Realtors, 2846-2871. High men for Pierce were Claude Hill with 207-569, and Bill Cox with 210-579.
