

Seaholm Band, Orchestra Set Spring Concert

Under the batons of Robert Kutscher and John Gerard, 110 members of the Seaholm High School Band and Orchestra are busy polishing musical numbers for their 8 p.m. May 7 annual Spring Concert.

The group plans a program of varied music which will include a few numbers that they played at the District Band and Orchestra Festival at which they were given a first division rating.

The band will play "Procession of Nobles" from "Madama" by N. Rimsky-Korsakoff, a Bach Fugue arranged by Gustav Holst; and "Mannin Veen," folk music from the Isle of Man, written for concert band by Haydn Wood.

THREE DRUMMERS, Charles Wessels, Jim Fox, and Charles Dick, will be featured in a trio, "Haskell's Rascals" by Paul Yoder. The band will also play selections from the movie "Around the World in 80 Days," "Gardens of Granada" by Torroba, and selected marches.

The orchestra will play "Overture to the Impresario" by Mozart, "Prelude from La Traviata" by Verdi, Enesco's "Rumanian Rhapsody," "Belle of the Ball" by Anderson, "Finlandia" by Sibelius, by Grundman.

Tickets for this evening of music may be produced from Grinnell's Music Store, band and orchestra members, or at the Seaholm gymnasium door the evening of the concert.

January is named for the old Latin God Janus, the deity in charge of beginnings and endings.

Berkshire Jr. Inducts 37 Into Society

Berkshire Junior spent its first class hour Friday, April 17, assembling in the gymnasium to pay tribute to its 37 newly-elected members of the National Junior Honor Society. Berkshires had previously only two entertainment in the form of weekly dances and hootenannies; separate entrances other than the main one; a snack bar which would serve beverages, hamburgers and ice cream and a place which could be cleared for dancing.

THE PANEL reported that the objection of high school students to this proposal was due to the regimented scheduling of activities. Mr. Roberts, building fund chairman of the YMCA, said the "Y" would do everything possible to see that the students were satisfied with the center.

Other schools competing in this contest included the Sacred Heart Academies in Grose Pointe, Buffalo, Rochester, Greenwich, New York and Noroton, Conn.

Accurate results of Seaholm's AFS-YFU drive, April 13 to 17, are not yet available, but the amount turned in by April 22 was over $3,500. High junior home-rooms at that time were Mrs. Ladd's with $401.01 and Mr. Vranich's with $297. These rooms probably will host two of next year's exchange students.
