

Month of May Fete-Filled At the DAC

The "DAC 21 Club" will start off May's social activities at the Detroit Athletic Club with a dancing party this Friday.

On May 15, the DAC has slated its final dinner-dance-floor show gala for the 1963-1964 season.

The "21 Club" is calling its festivity a May Day party and it's to take place in the big second mezzanine lounge at 9 p.m. Bob Schneider and the Crestmen will provide the music; there'll be songs by Jackie Curtis.

Norman J. Fredericks Jr. of Bloomfield Hills is assisting with arrangements.

DAC'S LAST FLOOR show of the season will run through May 23 (no performance on Sunday or Monday) and will present the music and comic showmanship of The Harmonicals, led by Jerry Marshall, and the comedy of Jay Marshall.

Clyde P. Craine Jr. and William A. Prew are Birminghamites on the entertainment committee in charge of the floor show gala.

A strictly stag affair will be the big Sports Spectacular, which is to be a second annual presentation on May 7.

A BUFFET DINNER in the Abbey, Grill, Pontchartrain and Georgian rooms will start at 6 p.m. Members and their guests will see national and international champions in bowling, a Korean karate demonstration, fencing, handball, volleyball, squash, and hilliards.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gnaou Jr. of Abbey Road, Birmingham, entertained at a noon breakfast for their son, Russell, who made his First Communion that morning at Holy Name Church.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Gnaou, in the party were their other children, Kathleen, Michael and Midge; Russell's two grandmothers, Mrs. Harry L. Maher and Mrs. J. Russell Gnaou, and his grandmother who also is his aunt, Miss Connie Gnaou.

LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Painting Entitled 'Girl' Takes First in Art Show

Winner of first place in the recent art show, held in conjunction with the Lathrup Player's spring production of "Blithe Spirit," was Mrs. R. W. Marr of San Rosa, Lathrup Village.

Her winning oil was titled "Girl." Second place winner was Christine Genker of George Washington, Southfield. Her painting, "Quiet Arbor," was a water color. Mrs. Laurence McLean of Spring Arbor, Southfield, won third with her oil entitled "Moonlight and Shadows."

Director and codirector of the play, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mansfield, held the "afterglow" in their San Quentin Road home. Members of the cast and members of the Lathrup Players attended after Saturday night's performance.

Among the surprises in store for Ted was the reading of an interview with Ted, by your columnist, written in 1945 while Ted was on the set of "The Man Who Came To Dinner." Ted was cast as Sheridan Whiteside in the then Baldwin High School production.

MR. AND MRS. Walter Myers (the former Phyllis Inman), came from their home in Taunton, Mass., for a surprise week-end visit with Mrs. Myers' parents, the G. Parker Innans of Westbrook Parkway recently.

The Carl Kruegers of Westbrook Parkway have returned home after spending 12 days vacationing in Ft. Lauderdale. They were accompanied by their two daughters, Karen and Kathy.

Mrs. John Foster will open her home at 18765 Autumn Lane at 12:30 on Monday for the regular meeting of the Cranbrook Village north branch, WNFGA. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Edward LeFevre and Mrs. Fred Rusche. Election of new officers for the coming year will be on the agenda for the meeting.

ALSO MEETING on Monday will be the members of the Lathrup Women's Club. They will convene at 1 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Congregational Church.

Mrs. F. G. Garrison, a lecturer on international affairs, will be the guest speaker. Her topic will be entitled "Sisters: The Emerging Women in Underdeveloped Countries."

Mrs. Garrison was educated in the U. S. and Europe. Her travels have been extensive from childhood. She lived for a time in Europe. Living and working abroad gave her the opportunity to learn first hand.

SINCE HER RETURN, Mrs. Garrison has been affiliated with the League of Women Voters, Oakland County United Nations Club, Birmingham Musical, Federated Clubs of Oakland County, 4-H Club and the Crippled Children's Association. She is currently state president of the WNFGA of Michigan.

Mrs. Robert Bowers is hostess for the day. Assisting her will be Mrs. Richard Cogger, Mrs. Vincent Zatzel, Mrs. Bernard Robertson and Mrs. Reinhold Buel.

Mrs. James Lanham and Mrs. Charles Here will be pouring at the tea table following the program.

WHEN The Optimist Club of Southfield meets this evening at Howard Johnson's Restaurant the members will bring their sons, too. April 30 is the date for the annual Father and Son banquet. Following dinner, the members and their sons will tour the WXYZ Broadcast House. The tour was arranged by Charles Kocher, chief engineer, and he will conduct the tour; in addition the group will view a film of the 1963 Soap Box Derby Championships.
