NORTH ADAMS

'The Fugitives' Produce 1st Record

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

There's a group of boys out North Adams way that are already a "big hit" with their school friends and are destined for bigger hits in the future.

They are the five "Tremalos" now known throughout the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Clawson area as "The Fugitives."

The five musical teen-agers are Glenn Quackenbush at the electric piano and brother, Gary, who twangs a "mean" rhythm guitar. The boys live on Burnley Drive. John Boyles of Kennesaw Drive, plays a bass guitar and sings and Retz Nichols of Moberg Drive handles the lead guitar. Elmer Clawson of Clawson is the drummer.

"The Fugitives" have played at Combo clashes at the many area schools and for private parties. Their first record is on D-Town 45 RPM and was released to the record stores on April 17. Good luck, boys!

KERN LAKE Garden Club members met with members of the Oakland, Beverly Hills and Cranbrook North branches for a group meeting in April to hear Mrs. William Ullenhuth of WNFCA Michigan Division and National Flower Show school chairman, talk on her recent trip to Holland as the winner of the International Frysinger Scholarship. The meeting was held in the Birmingham Room at Demery's.

Prior to the meeting Mrs. James Shannon of Parkman Drive, a past president of the Kern Lake Garden Club, entertained the club's 30 members at luncheon in her home.

On May 12 the garden club will hear one of their own members, Mrs. William Wise, talk on "Flower Arranging Made Easy." The meeting will be held at the Parkman Drive home of Miss Martha Burns with Mrs. Louis Cicchetti assisting.

IN YEARS to come the North Adams area will gain a new towering Osage orange tree as well as many other areas throughout Michigan—a plan of the Osage Garden Club.

Last spring after finding Osage orange trees were becoming very scarce the club began a selling drive and to date sold 1,200 tree seedlings. More are on order.

This year the club again began a selling drive and to date sold 1,200 tree seedlings. More are on order.

Residents wanting to still purchase the seedlings may contact Mrs. A. C. MacKintosh of Prov-
