

Bloomfield Hills Sets 'Week That Was' Show

By KAREN TRIMMER
Special Writer

Bloomfield Hills High School will present its annual variety show this Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9. The theme, "That Was the Year That Was," will feature a filmed series on BHHS school life. It will also satirize the television program, "That Was the Week That Was." Writers for the show are Jan Adams and Eric Linder with sponsor Mr. Don Gregory's help.

Paul and Dick Hollifield are both editors and producers for this presentation. They have arranged for the film scenes which are being taken by Ben Mills, Mitch Oakley and Don Simmons. Carol Dameron, accompanied by Jon and Jeff Hygge, will play the part of television's Nancy Ames.

NINE MEMBERS of the BHHS Forum attended the Union Classical League convention in Ann Arbor on April 25. Stephanie Campbell, Jim Byrum, John Lucey and Jan Van Haloran, with Don Gilliam moderating, held a panel discussion and workshop on Roman Banquets. Sandy Rogers and Nancy Pitts on the wire to your biased Republican publisher's newspaper!" (Why, Harry! . . . why are you so vehemently unpredictable in your political utterances?)

Of course, there were many dark nights in the history of mankind . . . nights when it seems that even the stars and the planets and the moon had lost their brilliance at the hand of some evil power. But, like the dark night of a single day, always the light of the dawn came upon the endless horizons of our earth, and the hard and torturous ways of humans were made easier for weary

The convention began with a general meeting of all who attended and concluded with the workshops and lunch.

March 24, 25 and 26 marked the days for the United Nations Club to visit the University of Detroit. Approximately 45 Detroit area schools gathered at U. of D. in order to hold regular meetings of a realistic large-scale UN.

DELEGATES FROM BHHS were Joe Gerson, for Spain; Pat Parroti, for Yemen; and Tom Grier, for Uruguay. The General Assembly met each day, supplemented by committee meetings in which resolutions were planned. The model UN discussed six basic issues: disarmament, UN representation of Communist China, expansion of the Security Council, Portuguese African territories, and the establishment of a permanent UN police force.

WHY COOK?

When one of our large, delicious barbecued chickens, three orders of golden brown french fries and a pint of cole slaw will serve a family of four at a cost of only 77¢ per person?

So, why fuss over a hot stove and bother with pots and pans? Enjoy the nice weather and leave the cooking to us!

footstep. Never despair! Dark night always disappears into new day's dawn!

Talk about hazards on a golf course! How'd you like to play 18 holes at Nairobi, Kenya, where part of the course lies within a game preserve for lions? Fortunately, though, whoever laid out the course certainly was careful to protect the players—playing rules state that "a ball lying less than 10 yards from a lion need not be played."

When President Johnson was a mere U.S. senator, and Democratic Majority Leader of that body, he delighted in praising one Bobby Baker, then secretary of that dominant portion of the Senate. And why not? Wasn't this young man doing a mighty important job very well? Wasn't he the "apple of the eye" of great men in high places? You bet he was, as the then Senator Johnson exclaimed: "Bobby is one of my most trusted, most loyal and most competent friends. I believe he is a young man who already has gone much farther in life than many others of far greater years . . . and it is my personal opinion that he is just getting started." So quoth the then Senator Lyndon B. Johnson . . . and at that time there's no doubt but that Lyndon's comments were deserved. But now, since the same Bobby Baker appears in much dispute among some U.S. senators, can you find any commendatory remarks by those senators (or the now President) who so roundly praised Bobby Baker? And do you find, among the majority party senators any enthusiasm and zeal to "go to the bottom of the Bobby Baker affair"? Hardly. It appears that whitewash has been too much applied to the facade of that "investigation."
