Make MOTHER'S DAY mother's day off

The guest of honor should cook? The guest of honor should not! Mother's Day is our day to cook, and our chef is planning to make something delicious of it. Our prices, incidentally, are calculated to give the lady no cause to protest your extravagance. Very reasonable. So reserve a family-size table and plan to come out. May 10 is the day.

'Dining Out' With Dad

Drama Students Stage Kingswood Production
By BETTY KRAUSE
Special Writer
"The Man" by Mel Dinelli will be presented in the Cranbrook auditorium on May 8 and 9 at 8:15 p.m. This production is the Junior Experiment's spring production and is under the direction of Mr. Templin Licklider. Any Cranbrook boy was eligible to try out, but the female parts were selected from the Kingswood Dramatics Class.
John Piraino and Debbie Dobski are the principals; they portray Howard and Mrs. Gillis. The plot is based on Mrs. Gillis's attempts to escape Howard, whom she finds, is a homicidal schizophrenic. The cast also comprises Candy Porter (Ruth), Jim Patterson (Frank), Jim Lewis (Mr. Stevens), Frank Kubert (Doug), and Skip McWilliams (Mr. Armstrong). They portray characters who come into the house after Howard has locked Mrs. Gillis inside.
The first tobacco planted in what is now the United States was imported from South America. The seeds were introduced to the colonies of Jamestown, Virginia, in 1612, by Britisher John Rolfe, husband of the Indian Princess, Pocahontas.
Helping her are Stephanie Okun, Sue McGraw and Leslie Schimpke. Julie Williams is chairman of the poster committee and Sue Wepe, Jean McGibbon and Leslie Finkelman are her committee members.
The Mother's Day tea this year will be held on Sunday, May 10, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. A group of AFS students have been invited to attend and an exhibition of student art will take place.

SUSAN JUDD has been named BCDS representative to the Eccentric Teen Panel. She will work with her new colleagues to help alleviate the problems of Birmingham teens.
The annual Kingswood music program was held on May 5 featuring nine student musicians and the Senior Glee Club. The director was Mrs. Lois Chapman and the accompanist was Miss Bertha Seifert. The pianist was students of Mischa Kottler.
The Senior Glee Club began and ended the program, singing a total of four melodies. Joan Matthews, Peggy Wilson, Cicely Guenther, Connie Bennett, Margaret Shopen and Mary Todd performed pieces on the piano: Candy Porter, Debbie Dobski and Judy Wells each sang.
An AFS fund-raising project, this one organized by the senior class, will be held on May 8. Senior Dress-up Day this year will be entitled "Fig Leaves to Formal". A mere fifty cents will buy any Kingswood girl a tag which shows that she has contributed.

Hills Country Day Attends 'Culver Night'
By ANGELA KOUNTOUPES
Special Writer
Miss Marjorie W. Sallie and a group of Bloomfield Country Day School students from grades 7-12 attended "Culver Night" at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club on April 25.
After dinner, the girls witnessed a precision drill by the Lanier Platoon of the famed Black Horse Troop and a mounted gymkhana, (exciting skill games on horseback). Following the show there was a dance honoring the cadets.
TWO CHAPEL talks of special note have been recently delivered at BCDS. Miss Mabel Nuppan, new student-teacher from Germany, spoke of her unusual experience with a Lutheran church group in Africa.
Dorothy Wilson, a sophomore, read to the school assembly a most interesting sermon which her minister-grandfather delivered upon the assassination of President McKinley.
