Groves Slate Spring Concert

The annual Groves High School band and orchestra spring concert will be held Thursday, May 14 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Guest soloist Kent McDonald, organist and choirmaster of St. James Episcopal Church of Birmingham, will play the first movement of "Piano Concerto in A Minor" by Grieg with band accompaniment. Other selections to be presented are "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor" by Bach; Johann Strauss' "Die Fledermaus"; and the "First Driving Lesson" from Ballet for Young Americans by Ralph Hermann.

THE ORCHESTRA will be under the direction of Richard L. Wade. Burton E. Bronson conducts the band.

Tickets are being sold by the band and orchestra members and may also be purchased in the school office or at the door.

Neighborhood Notes

From Peggy

By MRS. J. P. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

While the eyes of the world were on all roads leading to the New York World's Fair opening day, Franklyn C. Holmes, 1853 Hazel, took to the road leading away from the Fair.

Whizzing by hundreds of policemen stationed along the way and past tow trucks at every underpass poised ready for any emergency, he caught an early plane and arrived home ahead of schedule. The "Welcome Home" sign was in place over the door, but the frosting was not yet on the cake when Mr. Holmes called from the airport for his wife to come pick him up.

Finished with his job of overseeing installation of electrical equipment at the General Motors exhibit building, Mr. Holmes is home to stay, except for one more trip to take Mrs. Holmes and son, Jeff, to see the Fair in July. He has been commuting between Flushing Meadow and Birmingham since last August.

MRS JOHN A. Crossman, 1355 Haynes, ran up a score of 595 points to help her bowling team, the T-Bird Ladies, tie for first place in their bowling league April 29. Mrs. Crossman, whose average is 147, bowled three games scoring 200-205-190 to make the 595 points. The T-Bird Ladies and the Sid-Wally bowling team with whom they tied will have a roll-off Monday night, May 4.

The H. W. Ferchlands moved May 1 from 1528 Bowers to their new home located at 2577 Oxford St. in Gaslight Town, Troy. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Gost of Manhasset, L. I., arrived in Birmingham Tuesday. They are here for a ten-day visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Gost, 1414 Hazel.

KAREN KLEIN made her first communion in Holy Name Church, Birmingham, Saturday, April 25. To celebrate the occasion her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Klein, entertained members of the family at a dinner in their home, 1722 Bowers, followed by an open house for relatives and friends.

Dinner guests included Karen's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Klein of Bloomfield Township; her grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Budd, Detroit; her aunt, Shirley Budd, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Budd and family of Southfield.

Karen's god-parents are Richard L. Moran, Birmingham, and Barbara Lekar, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Moran and Miss Lekar were among the guests attending the dinner and open house that lasted on into the night.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Harris of Utica, formerly of Birmingham, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Mary Hulda, to Robert Jay Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay C. Raymond of Utica. The bride-elect attends Central Michigan University and her fiance attends Ferris State College. Date for the wedding will be announced later.

It's to be an International Fair at Baldwin Junior High School Friday from 3:30 to 8 p.m. Over 35 gaily decorated booths will fill rooms and line the corridors and there'll be a pancake supper for those who want to stay through. Proceeds will benefit the PTA which, in turn, caters to needs of the school not included in the regular budget.

Soroptimists Set Spring Card Party

The Soroptimist Club of Birmingham will hold their annual spring card party May 14 at The Community House beginning at 8 p.m. The service fund this year will be given to the Tyler School summer program and the Child Research Center. The club also sends two high school girls to Girls' State, contributes to the Community House and to the national service projects of the organization.

The club has planned a candy apple booth at the Village Fair May 14-17.
