

Junior Leaguers at Work

Discussing the merits of Birmingham Junior League's newest project, New Horizons, are (from left) Mrs. Henry E. McDonnell Jr., Stanford A. Wallace and Mrs. Herbert Fischer. The group of Birmingham women have given $24,000 to aid in the development of a workshop for retarded young adults in Oakland County.

MRS. GOSSER

Trip South Follows Rites in Holy Name

At a noon ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church Saturday, Mary Brad Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley W. Stephenson of Timberlake Road, Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of James F. Gosser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Gosser of Southfield.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown of veiled organza fashioned with a controlled skirt which extended into a chapel train of peau de soie. Alencon lace embroidered in seed pearls accented the bodice and formed a scalloped edge on the skirt. Her pillow, made of the same lace, secured a bouffant veil of French silk illusion and she carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

MRS. BRUCE J. DIEM, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mary Ann Charles, Patricia Rossi, Nancy Colaizzi and Mrs. F. Anthony Caruso. They all wore gowns of shrimp silk organza.

Donald E. Gosser was his brother's best man, and seating the guests were Thomas J. Feely, Bruce J. Diem, Ronald R. Schaefer and Charles H. Gerhardt. Following a reception at the Birmingham Country Club, the newlyweds left for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. They will make their home in Southfield.

Party to Help Catholic Girl Through School

Brownson Guild's annual dessert bridge and bake sale will take place on Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Don Ahrens auditorium of the Sacred Heart Convent, Bloomfield Hills.

Proceeds from the party will provide a scholarship to a Catholic college for a public school girl. Patricia Swerbensky of Turner Avenue has been Brownson Guild's scholarship student for the past four years. Patricia majored in art at Mercy College and will graduate in June. She plans to pursue graduate studies at the University of Michigan where she has been awarded a fellowship.

SUSAN CARANO, a June graduate and all-A student at Henry Ford High School, will be the recipient of Brownson Guild's scholarship award for next year. Susan will begin her studies at Marygrove College in September. Eva O'Hara, chairman, and Jody Yates, co-chairman, are in charge of the activities. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from Ruth Chavay.

Midnight Buffet

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Ware of 2787 Brady Drive, Bloomfield Hills, will entertain 18 guests at a midnight buffet following Saturday evening's performance of "Pajama Game" at Pontiac Northern High School by Will-O-Way Apprentices Theatre. Mr. Ware is a former Oakland County chairman for the March of Dimes, which will benefit from the Friday and Saturday evening productions.

International Tea Initiates WNFGA Farm Youth Exchange

A "don't be late for an important date" feeling is prevalent among Birmingham-area members of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association for their International Tea on May 14. They will meet with 97 of their sister branches at the Grasse Pointe lakefront home of Mrs. Elton MacDonald from noon to 4:30 p.m.

The tea will benefit the International Farm Youth Exchange. Delegates are chosen by the national office and sent to various countries to promote friendship and better understanding. They in turn send their representatives to America via the same system. Already five delegates are preparing to leave as soon as school is dismissed.

STATE international chairman Mrs. Donald Irwin is also general chairman of this gala affair. Her assistants include Mrs. Otto Winkelmann of the Walnut Lake branch handling tickets; Mrs. Wayne McCane, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Charles Deuel, Valley Woods food chairman.

Mrs. William McCallum, Birmingham, will be responsible for tea hostesses. Mrs. Carlton A. Smith of the Cranbrook group will be in charge of hostesses in costumes.

Those invited to pour at the tea table include Mrs. F. G. Garrison, president of the Michigan division; Mrs. Clarence McGuire, Mrs. Claude B. Resegnie, Mrs. Frank B. Chapman, Mrs. William Ullenbruch, Mrs. Paul Barrett, Mrs. Gaylord Bates, Mrs. Marvin Katke and Mrs. Elmore F. Wolterling.

OTHERS ARE Mrs. H. Earl Hanson, Mrs. W. F. McClellan, Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mrs. J. Crawford Frost Jr., Mrs. Jack F. Enlinger, Mrs. Charles L. Crane, Mrs. F. Gordon Davis, Mrs. Cash W. Talbot, Mrs. Arthur K. Hyde, Mrs. James B. Ogdon, Mrs. Truman F. Barbier and Mrs. Carson M. Wallace.

Two women from the Netherlands will have a turn at the tea table making the tea an international affair. Mrs. J. C. Van Willegen and her daughter Eilly are from the Zealand province of Holland, where Mrs. Van Willegen is president.

Local Boy Wed in West

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Sally Ann Lachapelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lachapelle of Eugene, Ore., to Michael P. Beer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Beer of Cold Spring Lane, Birmingham.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon. The groom, a graduate of the University of Michigan, is employed by the County of Los Angeles. Following a honeymoon in Arizona, the newlyweds will make their home in Los Angeles.
