'SS Hillcrest' To Be Scene Of Gala Party

It's to be a gay evening for members and guests of the Detroit Armenian Women's Club Saturday, May 23, when they go aboard the "SS Hillcrest" (Country Club) for a benefit dinner-dance entitled "Captain's Night." Sailing time is 7 p.m.

Funds raised from this annual party will go towards providing educational grants to college students in Michigan. Scholarships will also be available to high school seniors for the first time this year, according to club president Mrs. Peter Kenyon of Berkshire Drive, Birmingham.

Describing the affair, general chairman Mrs. Robert Denderian of Sandringham Way, Birmingham, said, "This dance will prove to be the next best thing to an actual sea-going voyage. The only thing missing will be inoculation requirements!"

CABLEGRAMS WERE used earlier as dance announcements. Guests will carry passport tickets which will be inspected by a customs official, after which they will step up the roped gangplank to enter the upper-deck.

Hostesses, gowned in full length white, with sailor collars and caps, will greet passengers with streamers and salutes.

Tables will gleam from the beam of individual lighthouse centerpieces. Other nautical decorations include flags, insignias and life rafts.

Sound effects of typical dock noises such as ship's whistle, the thud of baggage, bustling passengers, etc., will also be heard, along with special lighting effects to create the illusion of looking out at sea.

Highlight of the program will be the selection of a Mystery Captain, who will be chosen from among the guests. Herby Ross will provide dance music.

MRS. CADARET

Pair Is Wed At Candlelight Ceremony

At a candlelight service Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church, Phyllis Ann Mitehum, daughter of Mrs. Lenora Brown of Pembroke Road, Birmingham, became the bride of Robert Arthur Cadaret, son of Mrs. Mary Thorne of Los Angeles, Calif.

Given in marriage by her brother, James W. Mitehum, the bride wore a gown of white peau de seie designed with a sheath skirt and Sabrina neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a traditional headpiece. Handmade roses accented her long, Cathedral train, and she carried callalilies.

MRS. VYNER RICE of Warren was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant, while Willie Rice of Los Angeles was best man.

Following a champagne reception and dinner at Topinka's Country House, the couple left on a trip to Carmel and Monterey, Calif. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

Couple Visits 5 Countries During European Tour

By ELLI BLAUMAN MI 7-1465

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nicholls have returned to their Dunblaine Road residence after a trip to Europe which took them to London, Paris, Vienna, Rome, Athens, and Istanbul.

In London, where they spent three days, the Nicholls heard Joan Sutherland sing at the Royal Opera House. In Vienna they attended the ballet and a performance of "Don Giovanni."

From the Athens Hilton, which Mrs. Nicholls describes as "fabulous," they boarded ship for seven days and visited four of the famed Greek Islands, bartering in the marketplaces along the way as most tourists do.

Now that they are back, their friends will be able to share the trip with them through slides and snapshots.

A 10-WAY TRIP "down South" took Mr. and Mrs. G. Wright DeFonshaler a nine-year-old Garland of Pierce Road through the Smoky Mountains and into Georgia and Alabama where they had a family reunion.

They spent five days with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Slate and Doris Slate in Lincoln, Ala., visited Mary Slate in Birmingham, Ala., and daughter Martha, now married with three children, in Georgia. Another daughter, Jane, now Mrs. John Thomaston, and her husband came from Pensacola, Fla., to join the group in Alabama.

MR. AND MRS. Wesley Bearden of Dunblaine Road hosted an evening of bridge on a recent Saturday evening for Cliff and Barbara Frew, Mary Lou and Don Lynch, Liz and Bill Wyckoff, Peggy and Ted Kobelan, and Lee and Nancy Gunnerson who subbed for the vacationing Ward Whites. High scorer was Mary Lou Lynch who won a prize for her efforts and the evening ended with an outdoor barbecue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward White, Jr. are back from 10 days in Fort Lauderdale where they soaked up the sun while staying at the home of Mrs. White's parents.

AGATHA CORBY invited some 40 members of the Catholic Suburbanites to her Buckingham Road home last Saturday night for a house party. Assisting as cohostess was Penny Staakowski.

The new residents of the former Richard Koslowski residence on Buckingham Road are the James R. Millards formerly of Fenton, Mich. They invited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knopp, Mr. and Mrs. John Riddle, and the Frank Krohns, all of Fenton, to dinner last Saturday which also gave their friends an opportunity to see the new house.

Military School Promotes Students

The military department of Hove Military School (Indiana) has announced the promotion of Theodore N. Mitchell to sergeant and Jeffrey Davis Yoder to sergeant first class. They are both juniors in the military prep school and the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Mitchell, 520 S. Cranbrook Cross Road; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger A. Yoder, 520 N. Glenhurst, Drive, Birmingham.

Mary Jo Hawkins Married in Kirk

Mary Jo Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hawkins of Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of Kirk-in-the-Hills Saturday evening to become the bride of Donald Bryson Roe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Roe of Huntington Woods.

MRS. ROE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Bianchi sheath gown of silk-faced peau de soie made with a scoop neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a full train. Her bouffant butterfly veil fell from a tiny lace and jeweled crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

SUSAN REBECCA HAWKINS was her sister's maid of honor, bridesmaids including two other sisters, Patricia Anne and Margaret Lynn, and Lucy Roe, sister of the bridegroom. They all wore A-line gowns of delphinium blue silk organza over taffeta and carried white caryanthemums.

Lord Susan Kestorke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kestorke, wore pale pink crepe for her role as flower girl.

John Nelson Howard of Troy was best man and seating the guests were John Philip Hawkins of Flint, brother of the bride; Mark Reuter of Troy; John McCarthy of Mt. Clemens; Wolf Metzger of Rochester and Robert L. Smith, Jr., of Leonard, Mich.

Following a reception at the Village Woman's Club, the newlyweds left on a trip to the World's Fair and through the Smoky and Rocky Mountains.

On their return, they will be at home in Huntington Woods until September, when they will go to Knoxville, Tenn., where the bridegroom will attend Law School.

Parties Honor Miss Larkins

Bride-elect Marilyn Larkins, 30569 N. Greenbrier, Franklin, has been fettered by pre-nuptial teas and showers for her June 6 marriage to James H. Beebe of Trenton.

Mrs. J. T. Dorough and her daughter, Mary, opened their Beaconstead Ave. home recently for a bridal tea which was attended by former classmates of Miss Larkins at Groves High School.

More than 50 women attended a recent shower for Miss Larkins, which was hosted by Mrs. Donald Paul of Mt. Clemens and Mrs. Robert Bieker and her daughter, Sue.

Karen Beebe and Mary Dorough were hostesses to a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect, attended by 60 guests.
