

Corn-on-Cob Is a Hit With Foreign Visitors

By GLORIA JESSUP

There is nothing so tasty as hot corn on the cob dripping with butter. This is an American delight which we now enjoy in or out of season. Not so in England or in Argentina.

In recent weeks the LeRoy Gills of Fall River Drive have entertained at dinner parties for gentlemen associated with Michigan Owen Co. with whom Mr. Gills is associated. In the case of Dr. Arturo Bilgray of Argentina and also Keith McCann of England, the piece de resistance turned out to be good old corn on the cob.

BROTHER RICE began a tradition last Friday evening with their first group, which was held at Hillcrest Country Club. Among those attending from Lathrup Village-Cranbrook area were Bill Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cannon of Fall River Drive and Bernie Fitzgerald, son of Dr. and Mrs. Oswald Fitzgerald of Eldorado and their dates.

Ron Schensky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Schensky, of Margate escorted Kristina Hirschfeld of Southfield. They attended the party given by Keith Hartfield of Bennington Drive, Bloomfield Hills following the dance, Michelle Allen of Union Lake was Keith's date. He is the son of the Leo Hartleys.

MR. AND MRS. James Cannon of Fall River Drive received some good news recently. Their older son, Major James W. Cannon, will be stationed in Hawaii with the army for the next three years upon completion of his assignment in June at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. Major Cannon is married and has two sons, Mike, 9, and Mark, 7.

It won't be long now! Members of the Cranbrook Country Club have been looking forward to the opening of their pool and the day is set for May 30. May 16 has been set aside as "paint up, clean up, fix up" day with Ken Thomas as gang boss.

THE LATHRUP Men's Bowling League held its annual stag bowling banquet Monday evening at the Northwest Sportman Club. "The Jokers," Henry Oht, Dennis Timmons, "Scotty" Roberts, Milt Thackabery and Jim Wor-ten were the winning team. Milt Thackabery received an award as the bowler with the highest average of 192 for the year. He also had the highest series of 699 for which he was recognized. It was a close race for the most improved bowler of the year. John Maser with 15.67 pins edged out Al Little, who had 15.16 pins over their previous averages.

New officers for next year will be John Corona, president; John Maser, vice president; and George Russell, secretary-treasurer.

poddie make up the rest of the family. Mr. Patterson is sales manager of Helms Curtis Products for all of Michigan and Canada. The Pattersons are members of Edgewood Country Club.

RECENTLY locating on Rook Creek Drive are the Larry Scotts. They are formerly from Des Moines, Ia. David, 8, and Donald, 14, complete the family.

Mr. Scott is marketing manager for General Motors. The Scotts enjoy bridge and golf in their leisure time.

MAYOR JAMES S. Clarkson of Southfield is the guest speaker at this evening's meeting of the Southfield Optimist Club. In keeping with Law Day, U.S.A., his topic will be, "The Protective Rights of all Citizens Under the Law."

Caravans of pack camels move at a speed of about 2 1/2 miles per hour. With each animal carrying from 500 to 600 pounds, a caravan can cover from 15 to 25 miles a day.

Reception at Home Follows Ceremony

Mary Elizabeth Collins and Robert Frederick Turner spoke their marriage vows April 26 at a 5 o'clock candlelight service in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie with an ecru lace bolero. She wore a matching lace veil and carried a white Bible with a spray of stephanotis and ivy.

The bride's sister, Elizabeth, was her only attendant. She wore a soft olive green dress and carried a bouquet of tangerine carnations and ivy.

Arthur S. Turner of Carlisle,

Mass., was his brother's best man and Steve H. Hill of Lawrence, Kan., a classmate of the bridegroom's, seated the guests.

A RECEPTION AND supper followed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Collins of Birmingham Blvd.

The bride is a graduate of Birmingham High School and the University of Michigan. She is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority.
