

Girl, 13, Has Own Color TV

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

"It's the first time I ever won anything," said 13-year-old Katie Marie Cauley of Pine Lake Road as delivery men carried in the 21" console color TV she had won as first prize at the Galway County Fair.

The fair was presented by the Brother Rice Mothers Club on April 26 at the school. The winner was announced while a sock hop was going on. Katie Marie was at home, but her brother was at the dance and phoned the good news to the family.

ANOTHER YOUNG lady in the news is Karen Chronister who celebrated her 12th birthday on April 26, by taking a group of friends to Edgewater Park.

In case of rain, the Chronisters had planned on taking the girls to "South Pacific" but the weather cooperated and the day was sunny and beautiful.

Enjoying the roller coaster, caterpillars and cake walk were Linda Laramie, Christy Barwick, Denise Baughman, Linda Lippe, Shelby Broader, Sheryl Cruise, Jane Bamberg and Sandra Motta.

Afterward they returned to the Chronister home on Sutters Lane where Karen's brothers, Bill, 10, and Chuck, 14, served the girls sloppy joes, hamburgers, and, of course, birthday cake.

AND STILL more news about girls! Junior Girl Scout Troop 612 will spend Saturday at Marsh-bank Park where Mrs. Mason Lindamood, camper, will instruct them in the use of jack knives, hiking trail, and so forth, in preparation for four days' camping at Camp Narrin in August.

Accompanying the 28 girls Saturday will be their leader Mrs. Donald Freed; assistant leader, Mrs. James Connell; and Mrs. Raymond Helmsman. On April 29, the girls held a cookout after school at Subdivision One beach at Walnut Lake.

RESIDENTS OF Balmoral Orchards got together Saturday night for a dinner-dance at Kingsley Inn.

Chairmen of the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Oldroyd of Priory Lane, assisted by the Frank Russells, A. J. Richters, James Costellos, Floyd Clarke and Frank Arnolds.

Preceding the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Otto of Priory Lane entertained 20 guests at a cocktail party.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Bergmann of Darramoor Road were guests of honor at a cocktail party given by the Neale Schermerhorne of Old Orchard Drive on April 24, and afterwards at a dinner given by neighbors at Sylvan Glen Inn.

The Bergmanns have been transferred to New Jersey after seven years' residence in the Braes.

Mrs. Robert Jacobson and Mrs. A. C. Haeffner were in charge of decorations at Tam O'Shanter Country Club for the Highlanders dance last Saturday.

MRS. WILLIAM Crammer of Raven Road who is on the membership and acquaintance committee of the Kirkwood Improvement Association gave a coffee for 40 Kirkwood women on Tuesday.

Response to the proposed Kirkwood bridge league to start in the fall has been excellent, reports Mrs. Paul McGrath, chairman. Three leagues will be formed, a couples group and afternoon and evening ladies leagues.

Residents moving into the subdivision during the summer will also be invited to join.

DR. AND MRS. John Phelps of Walnut Lake Road attended the three-day convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs held last week end at Dearborn Inn.

Dr. Phelps is assistant to Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge, chairman of the Crusade for Strings.

On Friday Mrs. Phelps sang in the chorus of the Birmingham Musicals, one of the hostess clubs for the convention.

On April 28 Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Delbert Tate were cohostesses at a coffee in the Phelps' home to interest people in the Meadow Brook Concert Series to be held at Oakland University next winter.

MR. AND MRS. Herbert Young of Putnam Drive returned April 25 from a three-week stay in Indian Rocks Beach, Fla.

They were accompanied by her mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, of Garden City, and were joined in Florida by daughter, Judy, and two of her friends.

Also back from three weeks in Florida are Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Zibkowski of Raven Road who vacationed at Longboat Key with their children, Mark and Susan.

MRS. STANLEY Rapels of Eastmoor Road carried off three trophies at the Tel Huron Bowling League awards luncheon held at Birmingham Athletic Club on April 28.

They were for most improved bowler, perfect attendance, and for being a member of the team with the highest score.

The Clarence Myrlands are off to the Fisher Theatre tonight with friends from Dearborn. Mr. and Mrs. William McKell, to see "A Man for All Seasons."

A DELUXE edition of Bartlett's Familiar Quotations with the seal of the University of Michigan in gold was awarded to James Krogerud of Kenmoor Road for scholastic achievement in the freshman class. This was the William J. Branstetter award given to students in the upper seven per cent of the class.

James, a 1963 graduate of Groves High, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Krogerud.

In War Maneuver

Marine Corporal Charles L. Moyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest E. Moyer of 1368 Smith street, Birmingham, participated in a counter-guerrilla exercise at Camp Pendleton, Calif., with the First Marine Division's First Regiment based at Camp Pendleton. His regiment was engaged in suppressing guerrilla activity by using organized military force. To inject realism into the exercise 220 marines simulated the role of guerrillas.

The largest leaves in the world are those of the South American water lily known as the Victoria Regia, named for Queen Victoria. The enormous floating pads may be almost forty feet around.

Birmingham at Helm for Symphony

At an annual meeting held last week at Oakland Hills Country Club, members of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra elected two Birmingham women as president and vice president of the group. They are, respectively, Mrs. Cecil
