String Fantasy Slated at Methodist Banquet

Classified Ad

The Translucents of the Fowlston church in the Wiregrass area will be the next visiting group to be entertained at the Christmas program of the Elim Christian Church, Bartow, Fla., Dec. 15. The choir will be under the leadership of Mrs. E. M. Franklin, director of Christian education of the church. This choir enjoys a reputation of being one of the best in the state of Florida and is known in the Christian church circles of the state. The choir will be accompanied by a four-piece orchestra and a group of dancers who will add to the entertainment value of the program.

Sunday School Contest Ends

The Americanist Church of Bartow concluded its Sunday School contest on Sunday, March 15, with a small attendance. The singing of the young people was the feature of the program. The young people sang several songs, including "The Lord's Prayer," "O, Say Can You See," and "America the Beautiful." The young people also sang several spirituals, including "Talk of the Town" and "We'll Take the Day Off." The contest was conducted by Mr. J. B. Franklin, director of Christian education of the church. The young people were very much interested in the contest and showed a great deal of enthusiasm in their singing.

Dignified Atmosphere

The opening of the Americanist Church of Bartow's new building was the occasion for a special Sunday School program on Sunday, March 15. The program included several spirituals, including "O, Say Can You See," "America the Beautiful," and "We'll Take the Day Off." The young people were very much interested in the program and showed a great deal of enthusiasm in their singing. The young people were very much interested in the program and showed a great deal of enthusiasm in their singing. The program was concluded with a prayer by Mr. J. B. Franklin, director of Christian education of the church. The young people were very much interested in the program and showed a great deal of enthusiasm in their singing. The program was concluded with a prayer by Mr. J. B. Franklin, director of Christian education of the church.