TO GREET TEEN TALENT
Troy Girl in Musical Will Be Festival Guest

Dorita Reckford, who will open at the Fisher Theater June 15 with a star-studded cast in the lead, will appear in "Dorothy" because of her talent, as shown by her teacher, Mrs. Marie Cason. Sessions, crapes and weeds were some of the subjects that turned up.

Also, three-grade pupils exhibited in their rooms pictures they created by brushing oil paint on canvas. Three of the drawings were drawn by their teacher, Mrs. Martha Nielson. Sessions, crapes and weeds were some of the subjects that turned up.

The contest is open to all 7th and 8th grade junior high students in the city and the surrounding area. Applications for the festival entertainment show have been distributed to the school offices of all 32 junior high schools. The contest will be held June 15 at the Fisher Theater, with the cooperation of the American Legion Post 38, local schools, the Troy Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Troy Sportsmen's Club and the Royal Oak.

In the competition, which will be held at the Church of the Nazarene, 520 S. Saginaw, Troy, tickets will be available in advance at the door. The show will begin at 8 p.m. The entertainment show will feature Dorita Reckford, Miss Reckford, the winner of the national talent contest, and other talent from the area. The fun will continue through 10 p.m., with a reception and dance in the cafeteria afterward.

BOLL

(Excerpt from story)

Jack Reilly, Jr., of Detroit, will appear in the Detroit Opera House production of "The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing," playing the role of a young man. Jack is the son of Mrs. and Mrs. Reilly, Jr., of Detroit. He is also a member of the Detroit Boys' Chorus and has appeared in several productions with the chorus. He is attending Fordham University on a music scholarship.

Dorita Reckford, who will open at the Fisher Theater June 15 with a star-studded cast in the lead, will appear in "Dorothy" because of her talent, as shown by her teacher, Mrs. Marie Cason. Sessions, crapes and weeds were some of the subjects that turned up.

Also, three-grade pupils exhibited in their rooms pictures they created by brushing oil paint on canvas. Three of the drawings were drawn by their teacher, Mrs. Martha Nielson. Sessions, crapes and weeds were some of the subjects that turned up.

The contest is open to all 7th and 8th grade junior high students in the city and the surrounding area. Applications for the festival entertainment show have been distributed to the school offices of all 32 junior high schools. The contest will be held June 15 at the Fisher Theater, with the cooperation of the American Legion Post 38, local schools, the Troy Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Troy Sportsmen's Club and the Royal Oak.

In the competition, which will be held at the Church of the Nazarene, 520 S. Saginaw, Troy, tickets will be available in advance at the door. The show will begin at 8 p.m. The entertainment show will feature Dorita Reckford, Miss Reckford, the winner of the national talent contest, and other talent from the area. The fun will continue through 10 p.m., with a reception and dance in the cafeteria afterward.

BOLL

Jack Reilly, Jr., of Detroit, will appear in the Detroit Opera House production of "The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing," playing the role of a young man. Jack is the son of Mrs. and Mrs. Reilly, Jr., of Detroit. He is also a member of the Detroit Boys' Chorus and has appeared in several productions with the chorus. He is attending Fordham University on a music scholarship.

Dorita Reckford, who will open at the Fisher Theater June 15 with a star-studded cast in the lead, will appear in "Dorothy" because of her talent, as shown by her teacher, Mrs. Marie Cason. Sessions, crapes and weeds were some of the subjects that turned up.

Also, three-grade pupils exhibited in their rooms pictures they created by brushing oil paint on canvas. Three of the drawings were drawn by their teacher, Mrs. Martha Nielson. Sessions, crapes and weeds were some of the subjects that turned up.