Elections were held and results announced May 4 for Student Council and Student Spiritual Council officers for the 1964-65 school term.

Leslie Mahler will act as president of the Student Council, aided by Mary Sharon Daniels, vice-president; Pamela Owen, Secretary, and Catherine Shells, treasurer.

Ann Nemetz will take over as president of the Student Spiritual Council. Other officers will be Diane Orrico, vice-president; Ann Heiler, Secretary; and Diane Rice, Treasurer.

AREA FRENCH students are invited to the Marian-Brother Rice sponsored French plays to be presented Saturday, May 16. Sister Alphonsa Therese of Marian and Brother Joseph A. Grimaldi of Brother Rice are directors.

Marian students participating are seniors Sharon Garvale and Marilyn Wilkinson in "La Parure," and juniors Patricia Bailey, Margaret Conklin, Donna Sfilio, and Catherine Shells in "L'Anglais."

Ann Gannan, Mary Liz Stuechell, Mary Herpich, Susan Stann and Shirley Stann will interpret some of the action to modern dances.

There is no admission charge, but guests are asked to call Sister Alphonsa Therese (MI 4-1750) or Brother Grimaldi (MI 4-2327) for reservations.

THE MARIAN Mothers' Club Old World Market and Fashion Show, held May 8, was both amusing and exciting. Scores of unusual items found in little shops along the "Marianstrasse" and "L'Ecole des Beaux Arts" featuring art work by members of the Marian art department.

Authentic cuisine of France, Spain, and Switzerland was featured in the three dining rooms, with informal modeling of Jacobson's fashions during the dinner hours.

The annual Junior dance, themed "Spanish Serenade" held May 9, utilized the authentic decorations. Mary Lou Ciavarella was general chairman for the event.

Ten Marian students represented small but influential nations at the Model United Nations sponsored by the University of Detroit, April 24-26.

ON THE QUESTION of the mandate of Southwest Africa, in the trusteeship council, were Colleen Taylor, Ghanaian chairman and Cynthia Diehl of Panama. Leslie Mahler of Ghana and Ann Heiler of Panama attended Legal Committee meetings.

Disarmament was discussed in the standing Ad Hoc committee by Teresa Peterson of Ghana and Jean Scholz of Panama.

Mary Rose Lamb of Ghana and Ann Nemetz, chairman of the Panamanian delegation, discussed the status of citizens of Portuguese African territories.

Judy McKinnon of Ghana and Doris Flaherty of Panama worked of the particulars of the proposed permanent police force to aid the Security Council.

BARNUM'S ANNUAL May Day Fair on May 1 featured floats, booths, a dance and the selection of a May Day Queen. From a total of 10 candidates, Janice Poplack (center) was named queen. Chosen as her ladies-in-waiting were Judy Summer (left) and Cathy Jensen. Proceeds from the fair will be used to finance various projects within the school.

May Day Queen, Court Highlight Barnum Fair

On Friday, May 1, the Barnum track team defeated Derby's track team, 57 to 34, at Pierce field. Barnum broke their own previous record in the 300 shuttle relay with a time of 35.9 seconds. The team for this event consisted of Jay McAvilife, Ron Crook, Rod Schilze and John Hocking.

Barnum took seven out of eleven first places and Coach Stoll was tremendously proud of his squad. Barnum students are looking forward to Student Council elections to be held during the second week of May. Those elected will fill the offices of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and safety commissioner.

TO BE eligible a candidate must have a "C" average, majorities of "18's" and "22" in citizenship, and the recommendation of his homeroom teacher. All candidates for the offices of president and vice president must be eighth graders; others may be from the seventh grade. Prospective candidates must turn in petitions to the student council with the signatures of 100 seventh and eighth graders.

Barnum is basking in a pleasant after aura of the May Day Fair, held Friday, May 1, in the cafeteria. Every homeroom set up a booth.

Mr. Roy Vannette, principal, and Mr. Miller and Miss Winchell, art teachers, judged the booths after school, awarding blue ribbons to the prize winning booths in each grade.

IN THE seventh grade, Mr. Parker's homeroom made a winning well which received first place. Miss Ward's eighth grade received a blue ribbon for their photography booth. Miss Smith's ninth grade placed first with their interesting clown dart booth.

From a total of 10 candidates, Janice Poplack was chosen May Queen. Her ladies-in-waiting were Judy Summer and Cathy Jensen.

The money coming from the fair will be used for various projects within the school and for giving recognition to students and worthy school projects. A profit of about $500 was made.

Council Heads Elected at B'field Hills

Elections of officers for the 1964-65 Student Council are being held at Bloomfield Hills High School. A nominating committee comprised of one student from each homeroom met on April 30 to decide upon candidates.

These people were chosen to run: for president Jon Hippa, Greg Lau and Marvin Booth; for vice-president, Gary Fischer, Joan Carter and Ed Pearlman; for secretary, Janet Hy, Barb Calhoun and Karen Trimmer; and for treasurer, Sterling Spiern, Fred Beagle and Geoff Smith.

THEY GAVE speeches at BHS, Bloomfield Hills Junior High School and East Hills Junior High School on Thursday; on Friday the winning candidates were announced.

On May 7, the BHS bowling banquet was held in the school cafeteria. A smorgasbord dinner was prepared and trophies were awarded to high scoring bowlers, team captains and league winners.

Mike Ware was in charge of the planning and program. The recreation department has been preparing a new summer agenda. This year's summer activities will be courses in tennis, golf, basketball, trampolining, physical fitness and senior life saving.

A DAY CAMP program for children of elementary school age only will also be in operation with counselors of high school age instructing and teaching.

For junior high students, non-credit courses in math, English, creative writing and physical education will be offered.

Girls' spring sports are now underway. Inter-school teams are being made up for both softball and tennis. These teams will compete against both private and public schools.

Individual sports such as golf, tennis and archery are also being started. At the end of the season, the two best participants of each sport will compete against each other for the championship.
