Gathers for Spring Lunch

The Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association met at The Birmingham Community House, May 11 at 12:30 p.m. for their annual spring luncheon.

Mrs. Norman Berry was chairman of the day introducing guest speaker Richard Patterson of Forster Florists, who spoke on "Spring Beauties."

Acting as social chairman was Mrs. Leon E. Jackman. Taking luncheon reservations was Mrs. William K. Rankin, Mrs. Stewart M. Cram and Mrs. Aldo Patria.

THE TABLE decorations were done by Mrs. W. E. Genendine and her committee of Mrs. Thomas Gordon, Mrs. Matthew Cammareri, Mrs. Sheldon Marston and Mrs. Victor A. Brain.

Mrs. L. B. Boyd, chairman of hostesses, asked Mrs. V. Leonard Hanna, Mrs. H. R. Nickerson and Mrs. R. D. Lynd to assist her.

Birmingham Couple Return from Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews, of N. Adams, Birmingham, have just returned from an extended trip to Mexico where they visited 20 cities and spent considerable time at four different archeological sites including Mitla and Monte Alban.

At the latter sites Queen Juliana, Prince Bernhard and Princess Beatrice were also there at the same time, staying at the same hotel and later at Acapulco, the same arrangement took place.

Wearing her mother's wedding gown, Bonnie Mae Richard became the bride of Gary Mason Miller during double-ring ceremonies performed Saturday at St. Owens Catholic Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Richard, 7481 Franklin Court, Franklin, and Mrs. Eloise Livingston Miller of Bloomfield Hills and Rhys D. Miller of Orinda, Calif.

The bride's gown was fashioned of ivory satin designed on slim princess lines which ended in a long court train. The Deep-V neckline and long sleeves were trimmed with a wide band of rose point lace. A satin bow, also trimmed with rose point lace, secured the ivory illusion veiling. She carried a cascade of orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. ARLEY JOHNSON Lower Jr. of Birmingham served as the matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jose Ortiz and Karen Dahl, of Detroit; and Mrs. Frank Cagle, Lincoln Park.

The attendants wore street-length periwinkle blue sheaths enhanced with an overskirt. They carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies and lavender status. George Muehl of Birmingham served as best man. Ushers were Larry Richard, brother of the bride; Rich Rogowski of Royal Oak and Arley Johnson Lowe Jr. of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore a turquoise chiffon ensemble, while the groom's mother was attired in pink chiffon.

A garden reception at the bride's residence followed the ceremonies. The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to St. Jovite in the Laurentian Mountains in

ADAMS

The last meeting of Adams School PTA will be Monday, May 18. There will be a short presentation on the millage election to be held June 8. Adams backs the millage completely. With the millage passing, it looks forward to the completion of a playground project, expansion of library facilities, replacement of warped floors, elimination of large class loads and team teaching opportunities. Children will benefit from the quality of instruction and program they are entitled to, according to PTA members.

The annual spring concert will follow the millage presentation. The glee clubs and orchestra are combining for an unusual evening of entertainment.

Mary Lamont, a sixth grade student placed 12th in the spelling bee district finals.

The PTA Frolic was a financial success, due to the work and effort of all the parents. The PTA board has approved funds for the Safety and Service Patrols, teacher scholarships, noon hour help for teacher's relief, and a record player.

These allocations were made with Frolic profits.

The Safety and Service Patrols were guests of the Detroit Baseball Company Friday, April 17. The PTA provided the funds for bus transportation.

PIERCE

On Wednesday, May 20, at 8 p.m. Pierce School PTA will hold its last regular meeting of the year.

St. Dunstan's Guild will present a live, 30-minute play entitled "The Green Blackboard," written and produced in cooperation with the Family Service Association of Oakland County.

It is one in a series of plays being presented to parents and educators in order to give emphasis to situations in the community which need recognition, greater understanding and discussion.

Annual election of officers will take place.
