

June Bride

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McLachlan of Detroit announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Roger Bruce Marshall, son of Roger A. Marshall of Bassett Place, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Marshall. The bride-elect attended Mercy College and was graduated from the University of Michigan, Dearborn campus. Her fiancé is also a University of Michigan graduate. A June 27 wedding is planned.

BIRMINGHAM-BLOOMFIELD HILLS

King-Size Evening Marks Anniversary

By MARTI CAHN

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund K. Terry began the celebration of their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary at a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodson in their Birmingham home, concluding the evening's festivities with dinner and dancing at Oakland Hills Country Club.

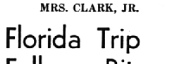

Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brown and Mr. and Mrs. George Herrick of Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Terry, radiant in a sea-gown floor-length silk crepe gown accented with a jeweled bodice, exclaimed that the delightful occasion was the beginning of other exciting events. The next one is a trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry will be accompanied by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Terry of Berkeley, on a jet flight to San Francisco June 17 to attend graduation ceremonies at Saint Francis Memorial School of Nursing—daughter Brooke is a member of the graduation class.

The family will return to Birmingham June 20, accompanied by Jane Lombardi of Stockton, Calif., Brooke's classmate, who will be a houseguest for a week.

Following a week of relaxation (T. Brooke and Jane will depart in Brooke's new car (graduation present) on a motor trip to the H BAR G Ranch for girls at Estes Park, Colo., where Brooke will spend six weeks as part-time nurse and riding instructor.

BRIDAL PARTIES honoring

MRS. CLARK, JR.

Florida Trip Follows Rites At St. Regis

St. Regis Church was the setting for the May 9 marriage of Patricia Anne Pettit and Richard Anthony Clark, Jr.

Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Pettit of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Clark, Sr., of Detroit. The bride wore a floor-length silk organza over taffeta gown, accented with a lace bodice. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

A reception at Devon Gables followed the ceremony.

Following a honeymoon in Florida, the couple will make their home in Warren.

Edna Kay Witherspoon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Witherspoon of Birmingham were initiated at a family dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, parents of the bridegroom, Charles Terrence Kelly, at the Kellys' Indianapolis home.

Mrs. G. A. Godwin, aunt of the bridegroom and also of Indianapolis, entertained at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower.

The bride-to-be was honored at a luncheon and personal shower given by Sadie Hines, Joan Yareney and bridesmaids Jean Blanton and Corri Leonard at the Detroit home of Miss Yareney.

Mrs. Clayton Detmers entertained in her Bloomfield Hills home at a tea and linen shower.

Miss Witherspoon will become the wife of Mr. Kelly on May 16 at a morning service in Saint Owen's Church, Birmingham.

THE WILLIAM J. Teyohs of Valley Hill Road are looking forward to exciting happenings with the homecoming of their son, William J. III, who has completed his freshman year at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla.

Following the end of the school year Bill will have a week's visit at the home of Tony Patten, Jr., school roommate in Pleasantville, N. J. The two will take in the sights of New York and attend the World's Fair before coming to Birmingham for a homecoming party for Bill and guests.

Dawn Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Randall, is also looking forward to Bill's homecoming—he will be her escort for the Marian High School graduation dinner dance from June 12.

HITS OF TRAVELING NEWS . . . Mr. and Mrs. James Guest have returned from a ten-day vacation at the Greenbriar, White Sulphur Springs, where they golfed, danced and celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Louis Morse, Jr., were in Madison, Wis., for a week end visit with their daughter Suzanne, non-in-law James Bissell and grandchildren Debbie and Richard. The Morses will leave tomorrow for their annual family visit with Mr. Morse's three sisters and their husbands, and his mother, Mrs. Louis Morse.

First stop will be at Carlisle, Pa. to be with Mr. and Mrs. Woody Hertzler—next will be Washington, D. C., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sleeper and Mrs. Morse. In York, Pa., they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart W. Frankford returned from Washington, D.C., and New York City with repeat reservations to return to the World's Fair (they loved it!) The Frankfords depart tomorrow for a fast trip to their apartment at the King Cole, Miami Beach to close it for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. O'Neil were at the Americana Hotel, New York City . . . took in the World's Fair, theatre and shopping.

ECENTRIC PHOTO

Taking the 'Grand Tour'

Mrs. Arthur E. Moore (left), and Mrs. Homer Sale stoutly maintain no European tour could be any more important than the Planned Parenthood House Tour scheduled for today in Birmingham and Bloomfield. The twosome are among hostesses for the event, only fund-raising project in Oakland County which benefits research for Planned Parenthood both nationally and internationally.

BEVERLY HILLS

4 Local Questers Attend National Convention in Pa.

By ELLI BLAUMAN MI 7-1465

Four members of the John W. Hunter Chapter of Questers represented Beverly Hills at the Annual National Convention in Philadelphia, where they saw a Michigan woman, Mrs. Mildred Hanna of Dearborn, elected national president of the group.

Mrs. Donald Conrad, Mrs. Otto Melke, Mrs. James W. Gray and Mrs. Bruce Dempsey left last Friday, and during their stay were made welcome in the homes of Philadelphia Questers.

Attending the convention was only a part of the excitement, however, since tours to Valley Forge, local museums and old colonial homes had also been arranged.

Returning on Tuesday, the women rushed their films to drug stores for developing in time for next Wednesday's meeting which will be the group's last gathering until next September.

FRIENDS AND neighbors will be pleased to learn that Wilfred Brunk, nine-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Perry Brunk of Kenneway Court, is recovering nicely from his recent accident.

Unfortunately though, it was, only one leg was broken, instead of two as previously reported. Wilfred will be looking forward to mail call every day, as he will be at Mt. Carmel Hospital for a few weeks yet. Mrs. Brunk doubts she will be able to rejoin with schoolmates for the remainder of this semester.

MRS. BURTON J. Schimpke hosted a coffee last Friday morning for 45 women, all members of the Valley Woods Association. Mrs. Wallace E. Hunt was responsible for the clever invitations and Mrs. Robert Cubberley and Mrs. Nemer G. Simon, Jr., co-salutaries, acted as co-hostesses.

Plans for the association's dinner dance at the Kingsley Inn were discussed, and new officers were announced. The new president is Roderick Spann of Topper Court; Harlan Farb of Bellvine Trail is vice president; Mrs. Robert Keydel also of Bellvine Trail will serve as secretary, and Lee Hansen of Westdale Drive will handle the association funds.

Mrs. Richard Maier, the former Barbie Kittle, will arrive from Chicago next Monday to spend a week with her parents, the Kenneth Kittles of Westdale Drive. While here, Barbie plans to buzz up to Michigan State to visit her sorority sisters for one day.

THE WEST Beverly Hills Woman's Bowling League held their annual award luncheon at the Red Run Golf Club last Tuesday where Mrs. Ada Van Dresser acted as hostess to the 45 women present.

The league's new officers are Mrs. Robert Carvura, president; Mrs. Lee Embrey, vice president; Mrs. C. Dean Brown, secretary; Mrs. Richard McNulty, treasurer; and Mrs. Lawrence Munn, sergeant-at-arms.

They will begin their new season on Monday, Sept. 14, and would welcome new members who may contact Mrs. Embrey or Mrs. Brown.

The Pilgrim Singers, Rick Connor, Darryl Mazur, Ken Abbott, and Barb Swenson, performed in a variety show last Saturday

To Marry

At a recent dinner party given by the bride-elect's parents, the engagement of Beverly Ann Barich to Thomas M. Moonen was announced. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John M. Barich, 15999 Amberst, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Moonen of Bates Street, Birmingham. The couple both are seniors at Michigan State University, where Miss Barich is associated with Delta Gamma and Mr. Moonen is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. A fall wedding is planned.

By compensating individual workers for a portion of the wages lost during periods of unemployment, Michigan's unemployment insurance program also helps stabilize the community's economy by maintaining community purchasing power.

There are at least fifty kinds of kangaroos, and they vary in size from about six inches to six feet. The largest of them can travel at the rate of forty miles an hour and cover twenty feet in one bound.

SENSITIVE FEET
appreciate the soothing comfort of HACK SHOES.
235 Pierce Street Birmingham

Devon Gables
(Telegraph at Long Lake Rd.)
PRESENTS A FASHION SHOW
every Friday
Starting at noon and continuing through the lunch hour. MI 4-6800.
FASHIONS BY
Jacqueline Shops
BIRMINGHAM • OAK PARK

Our Decorator's Choice Of The Week

COACHMAN'S TABLE LAMP

From Our Hidden Galleries*
This unusual colonial Coachman's Lamp in brass and maple has a night light built into the base, a fully lined fluted shade, and an elegance all its own.
28 inches high $54.00

Just one of the many hundreds of Early American decorator items to be seen in our displays and galleries.

*Though we did not intend that these galleries be hidden, we have found that due to the layout of our building many people who have been in our store on various occasions were not aware that they existed. Feel free to ask the location of our galleries the next time you are browsing through our store.

Professional Decorator Service
Always Available to Our Customers

"The World's Most Beautiful Furniture"
OPEN THURSDAY AND FRIDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 9
716 S. MAIN STREET, Royal Oak
LI 1-2881

Exciting

Gifts for the Bride

Table Linens (every size and shape—formal or informal) . . . Bathroom and Powder Room Accessories . . . Martex Towels . . . Rugs . . . Bed Covers . . . Hankies . . . etc., etc.

Excitingly different

Be it a gift of $2.00 or $200.00 . . .

BRIDAL REGISTRY

IC the linen closet
home accents...exclusively different!
BLOOMFIELD SHOPPING PLAZA
1746 S. BIRMINGHAM
Thurs. 'til 9 p.m.

SPECIAL!
HEAVY ALL-WOOL REVERSIBLE
Braided Rugs
8'6" x 11'6" $57.50
4 COLORS

HEAVIER ALL WOOL BRAIDED RUGS.
REVERSIBLE 8 COLORS

4x6	$24.50	9x12	$75.00
6x9	$44.50	9x15	$124.50
9x10	$69.50	10x14	$126.95

EXTRA HEAVY WOOL CLOTH BRAIDED RUGS.
4 Colors. Reversible. 9x12. '139'

Harold B. Brown, Inc.
CARPETS and RUGS
2863 Woodward Avenue (2 1/2 blocks S. of 12 Mile, W. Side)
LI 2-8695 Open Monday, Thursday, Friday Evenings 'til 9
LI 2-9678 BUDGET TERMS

Autumn Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Clare E. Briggs, of Grosse Pointe Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lydia Mae, to Ronald Leonard Sandberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy L. Sandberg, of Birmingham. The young couple presently attend Hillsdale College, where the bride-elect is affiliated with Chi Omega. An early September wedding is planned.

KINDEL
Grand Rapids

Informal Elegance
for your bedroom . . .

Kindeg of Grand Rapids proudly presents the superb new Provincial Louis XVI group . . . bedroom furniture of classic beauty interpreted in the tradition of the French Provinces during the latter half of the 18th Century . . . reflecting in just the right degree elegance, warmth and continental charm.

Edward S. Pierson Interiors
KEnwad 2-8813 Open Mon. and Fri. Eves 18556 Grand River, Detroit 2
Between Outer Drive & Evergreen