The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, May 14, 1964

Most of us, from time to time, have kindly, grateful thoughts that we hold toward others; alas! so seldom do we speak or write these thoughts where they really would do good. Good not only to the recipient, but also to the sender. One need not write a long letter to accomplish this so-needed act. Just a dozen words, written from the heart, will carry the uplifting message! Try it, friend . . . often! (GRA)

During the past few years it has almost become tradition for members of the Junior Symphony Association to hold their glamorous Carnation Ball at the Little Club in Grosse Pointe. This year's change of locale—party took place Saturday at Oakland Hills Country Club—was not only a plus for those living in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area but also proved geography doesn't mean a thing when it comes to success. This was a huge, swingin' affair!

Mu Phi Epsilon To Give Concert At Kingswood

Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon will present members in concert Friday at 8:15 p.m. at Kingswood School Cranbrook.

The program includes the Vivaldi Double Concerto, Mrs. William Hohmeyer and Mrs. Walter R. Conrad, violins; Bertha Seifert, accompanist. Mrs. Marshall Houghton, pianist, will play the Beethoven Sonata Op. 31, No. 2 and the Chopin Scherzo in C-sharp minor. Mrs. C. E. Zech will sing a Schumann Cycle and the closing numbers will be by Anna Husband and Fontaine Zif, pianists.

An afterglow has been arranged by a patroness Mrs. Ben Selton and her committee.

'Blossom Time Tea' Planned by Auxiliary

Twenty-nine hundred invitations went into the mail last week for a "Blossom Time Tea" to be held Thursday, May 21, benefiting the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor.

Dozens of Birmingham-Bloomfield women, all members of the auxiliary sponsoring the event, will trek into the Grosse Pointe home of Mrs. Charles S. Tompkins to assist as hostesses or to simply enjoy a pretty party.

Mrs. Joseph J. Churches of Bloomfield Hills entertained board members at a brunch in her home last week to finalize plans for the tea.

AMONG LOCAL chairmen are

Mrs. John G. Gibson, Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan and Mrs. James M. Roche. Assisting at the tea table will be Mrs. Charles W. Davitt and Mrs. Aloysius F. Power.

Additional localities who received invitations are Mrs. Judge W. Bearden, Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Jr., Mrs. Albert F. Boening, Mrs. Edward H. Kelley, Mrs. John Reuter, Mrs. Frank McDonnell, Mrs. Frank J. Paxon, Mrs. J. Fred Selman, Mrs. Hanley Dawson, Mrs. Charles W. Taylor, Mrs. Dawson Taylor and Mrs. Howard Kasting.

Proceeds of all Auxiliary activities finance the work of the Dominican Sisters, who provide profes-

W. J. DeGraces Are Europe-Bound

Mr. and Mrs. William J. DeGrace of 2113 Yorkshire Road, Birmingham, will leave Saturday for three weeks in Europe. They will motor through England, Scotland and Wales before returning from Amsterdam with the Detroit Press Club charter flight.

A particular attraction is expected to be Stratford-on-Avon during this 400th anniversary celebration of the birth of William Shakespeare.

Professional nursing care, without charge, in the homes of the unfortunate sick poor, regardless of creed or color. Pharmaceutical items, medicines, dressings, etc., are furnished without pay.

in design from the orient

Introducing our Far Eastern group, true to the traditional concept of oriental design . . . fashioned with utmost simplicity which is softened by a wealth of refined details. Two carefully developed finishes: Oriental Teak and glowing Sampan Brown . . . each beautifully accented with custom designed hardware of bright brass with black wax finish. Certain accent piece offered in exciting Chinese Red or Ming Green. This subtle flavor of the Orient will blend with any setting from Regency to Modern. See it today at Stewart-Glenn!
