Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

Mrs. Allison F. Bristol entertained 16 guests at a stork shower at her home, 1087 Bowers, May 3. Guest of honor was her niece, Mrs. Ronald A. Duff, Farmington. Mrs. Bristol's sister, Miss Effie C. Ferrier of Highland Park and her niece, Marilyn Embury of Birmingham assisted as hostesses.

Other guests were Mrs. Raymond Kong, Honolulu; Mrs. Duff's mother, Mrs. Gordon Crown of Detroit; Mrs. Ray C. Embury, Birmingham; Mrs. Thomas E. Shawcross, Highland Park; Mrs. George Samaha, Birmingham; Mrs. Glen Burley, Detroit; Mrs. Harry L. Watkins, Pontiac; Mrs. Ola Keenan and daughter Donna, Farmington; Mrs. John MacEne, Beverly Hills, and Mrs. Bristol's daughter, Sally.

The presence of Mrs. Kong added to the excitement of the occasion. She and Mrs. Crown have been friends since childhood. Dr. and Mrs. Kong are taking a trip around the world and are stopping briefly in Detroit to visit friends.

MRS. LEW Churchill, 335 Eton, now recuperating at home, underwent surgery at Highland Park General Hospital May 1. When she returned home May 5, son David was there to greet her. He had the measles.

William Kelley, Jr., 1692 Bowers, got home from the hospital Thursday. He had a knee operation May 1 in New Grace Hospital. It is expected he will be convalescing at home for four to six weeks.

Mrs. William Juhasz, 1785 Bowers, entertained members of her canasta club May 5. Prize for the highest score went to Mrs. Hugh Nince and Mrs. Edward A. Barch won second prize. Other members of the club are Mrs. Roy F. Andes, Mrs. Arthur H. Boelter, Mrs. Ford Lett, Mrs. William E. Marsh and Mrs. George Poirier.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Barby, 1679 Bowers, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Weydemeyer, Clawson; "got away from it all" recently and spent a weekend at Potawatomi, a resort near Angola, Ind.

TICKETS WENT ON SALE yesterday for the Torry Carnival to be held at the school Saturday, May 16, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. According to Mrs. Robert W. Gee and Mrs. Frank L. Allen, co-chairman of the fair, sloppy joes, hot dogs, cold drinks, coffee, candy apples, popcorn and snow cones will be offered for sale.

Besides the 20 game rooms inside the school, there will be free entertainment outdoors, and prizes for winners of the three-legged race, the sack race and the 50 yard dash.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Schroeder, 1621 Bowers, have invited 26 relatives to dinner at their home following their daughter Sue's confirmation at Our Shepherd Lutheran Church, Birmingham, Sunday morning, May 17.

Among the guests will be Sue's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Perc F. Parsons, Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Schroeder, Royal Oak. Also at the dinner will be Sue's sponsors, Ronald P. Parsons and Mrs. Michael J. Barmach. Later in the afternoon the Schroeders will entertain 20 friends at an open house starting at 4 p.m.

Time-Out in the Sun

During a recent visit to Pier 66 in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Weir, Tibburey Road, Birmingham, took a break from the golf course for a less strenuous kind of relaxation—swimming and sunning.

'Famous Lovers' Theme Of Anniversary Party

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Finding the pair of "Famous Lovers," such as Romeo and Juliet, Anthony and Cleopatra and many, many others, enabled the 70 guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney B. Harriman to not only get acquainted but to find their dinner partners.

The guests (friends of from 5 to 30 years) gathered at the Village Women's Club last Saturday evening to help the Harrimans celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harriman were hosts for cocktails and dinner and also for the champagne toasts to several of their friends who were also going to celebrate a wedding anniversary in the month of May.

LINDA CUMMISKEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cummiskey of Westwood Lane, has recently been selected as one of four juniors to be elected to Pi Beta Lambda, honorary music society at Northwestern University. This year's chairman is Mrs. Elwood Engel of Franklin Road, Chalmers Lake, entertained at a tea last Monday afternoon. The yearly event was attended by about 45 of her neighbors.

FRIDAY EVENING 22 couples from the Westwood Manor subdivision will gather for their annual dinner dance at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. Dancing after dinner, will be to the music of Don Dierkita and his orchestra.

Among those hosting cocktail parties prior to the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price of Westwood Lane and Dr. and Mrs. Hans Hoyer of Kolly Road. This year's chairman is Mrs. William W. Wilson. Her committee consists of Mrs. William W. Henderson, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Peters and Mrs. Jack Edmans.

Saturday evening about 20 couples from Wood Lake Hills will gather at the Birmingham Athletic Club for cocktails, dinner and dancing.

Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Mihalic returned to their Midmore Road home recently following a relaxing vacation in the Bahamas. They enjoyed a week at Key Biscayne and nine days at French Leave on Eleuthra Island.

AT THE May 4 PTO meeting of Conant School the new officers for 1964-65 were elected.

Vows Given At Air Base In South

A candlelight ceremony in the chapel at Gunter Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala., united in marriage Lt. Joan LaRue Roy and Capt. Raymond F. Brant April 25. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy of Sugar Grove, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Brant of Birmingham.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and chapel train. A narrow bow accented in seed pearls accented the waistline, and her shoulder-length veil was secured to a crown edged in the same pearls. She carried miniature pink rosebuds, lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

THE BRIDE'S ONLY sister, Mrs. Karen Messinger, was matron of honor and bridesmaids included Lt. Lynda Boarts and Lt. Sally Himes. They wore matching dresses of pink chiffon and carried bouquets of white feathered carnations, pink rosebuds and ivy.

Capt. Henry Crittenden of Montgomery was best man and ushers were Capt. Michael Ciriaci and Lt. Joel Grasse.

A reception was held at the Officers' Club following the ceremony. The couple will live in Montgomery.
