

Garden Club Announces New Officers

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA, 6-2357

When the members of the Cranbrook Village North branch, W.N.S.A., met on May 4 an election of officers took place. Taking the reins in the fall will be president Mrs. Robert Swearingen.

Her officers include Mrs. Paul Pelletier, vice president; Mrs. James Liddy, recording secretary; Mrs. Howard Bauer, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Hugh Clark, treasurer.

Winners of the recent telephone card party were announced. Prizes went to Mrs. Robert Swearingen for her high bridge score and to Mrs. Harry Kirk in the pinocchio competition. Both ladies are residents of Bainbridge.

MR. AND MRS. ROSCOE Johnson of Autumn Lane learned recently that their son, George, had been initiated into the Vaicans, honorary society in the College of Engineering at the University of Michigan. In addition he was elected senior class president of the College of Engineering and was chairman of the recent Technorama.

Silly little gifts awaited the arrival of Mrs. Gordon Rauschenberger when she came to the Harvey Sterns home on Westbrook Parkway last week. It was a joint coffee, given by Mrs. Sterns in celebration of Mrs. Rauschenberger's birthday and also to welcome two neighbors. New to Westbrook Parkway is Mrs. Julius Teitelbaum and now to Silver Springs is Mrs. Al Martin.

ANOTHER WELCOMING party, this time including the husbands, took place last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sobolewski on Westbrook Parkway. It was hosted by the Sobolewskis and Mr. and Mrs. G. Parker Inman, also of Westbrook Parkway.

It was a pot luck supper with about 20 couples attending. Newcomers in attendance were the Mark Huttons, the Jerry Erics, the Julius Teitelbaums, the Daryle Sanders, the Bud Herringtons, the Gordon Hauschenbergers and Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith.

Another wee newcomer is Stephanie Green. She is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. John Green of Northgate. She was born April 8 and weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces. On hand to welcome Stephanie home and to stay for a few weeks visit with her daughter and son-in-law was Mrs. Arnold Cassens of Hamel, Ill.

THREE LITTLE newcomers to Cranbrook Village are Leif, 2½, Kris, 1½, and Mark, 5 months. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Nygaard who recently moved into the Lloyd Gabler home on Autumn Lake. They are former residents of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Nygaard, who hails from Muskegon, is a graduate of Wayne State with a major in business education. Mr. Nygaard is a native of South Dakota. He attended and graduated from the University of South Dakota. His major was business administration. He is a profit analyst in the budgeting division of Chrysler Corp.

NEW OFFICERS for the Northbrook PTA have recently been announced. They are Robert Hawkes, president; James Lunan, father vice president; Mrs. Robert Tucker, mother vice president; Richard Kurche, teacher representative; Mrs. William
