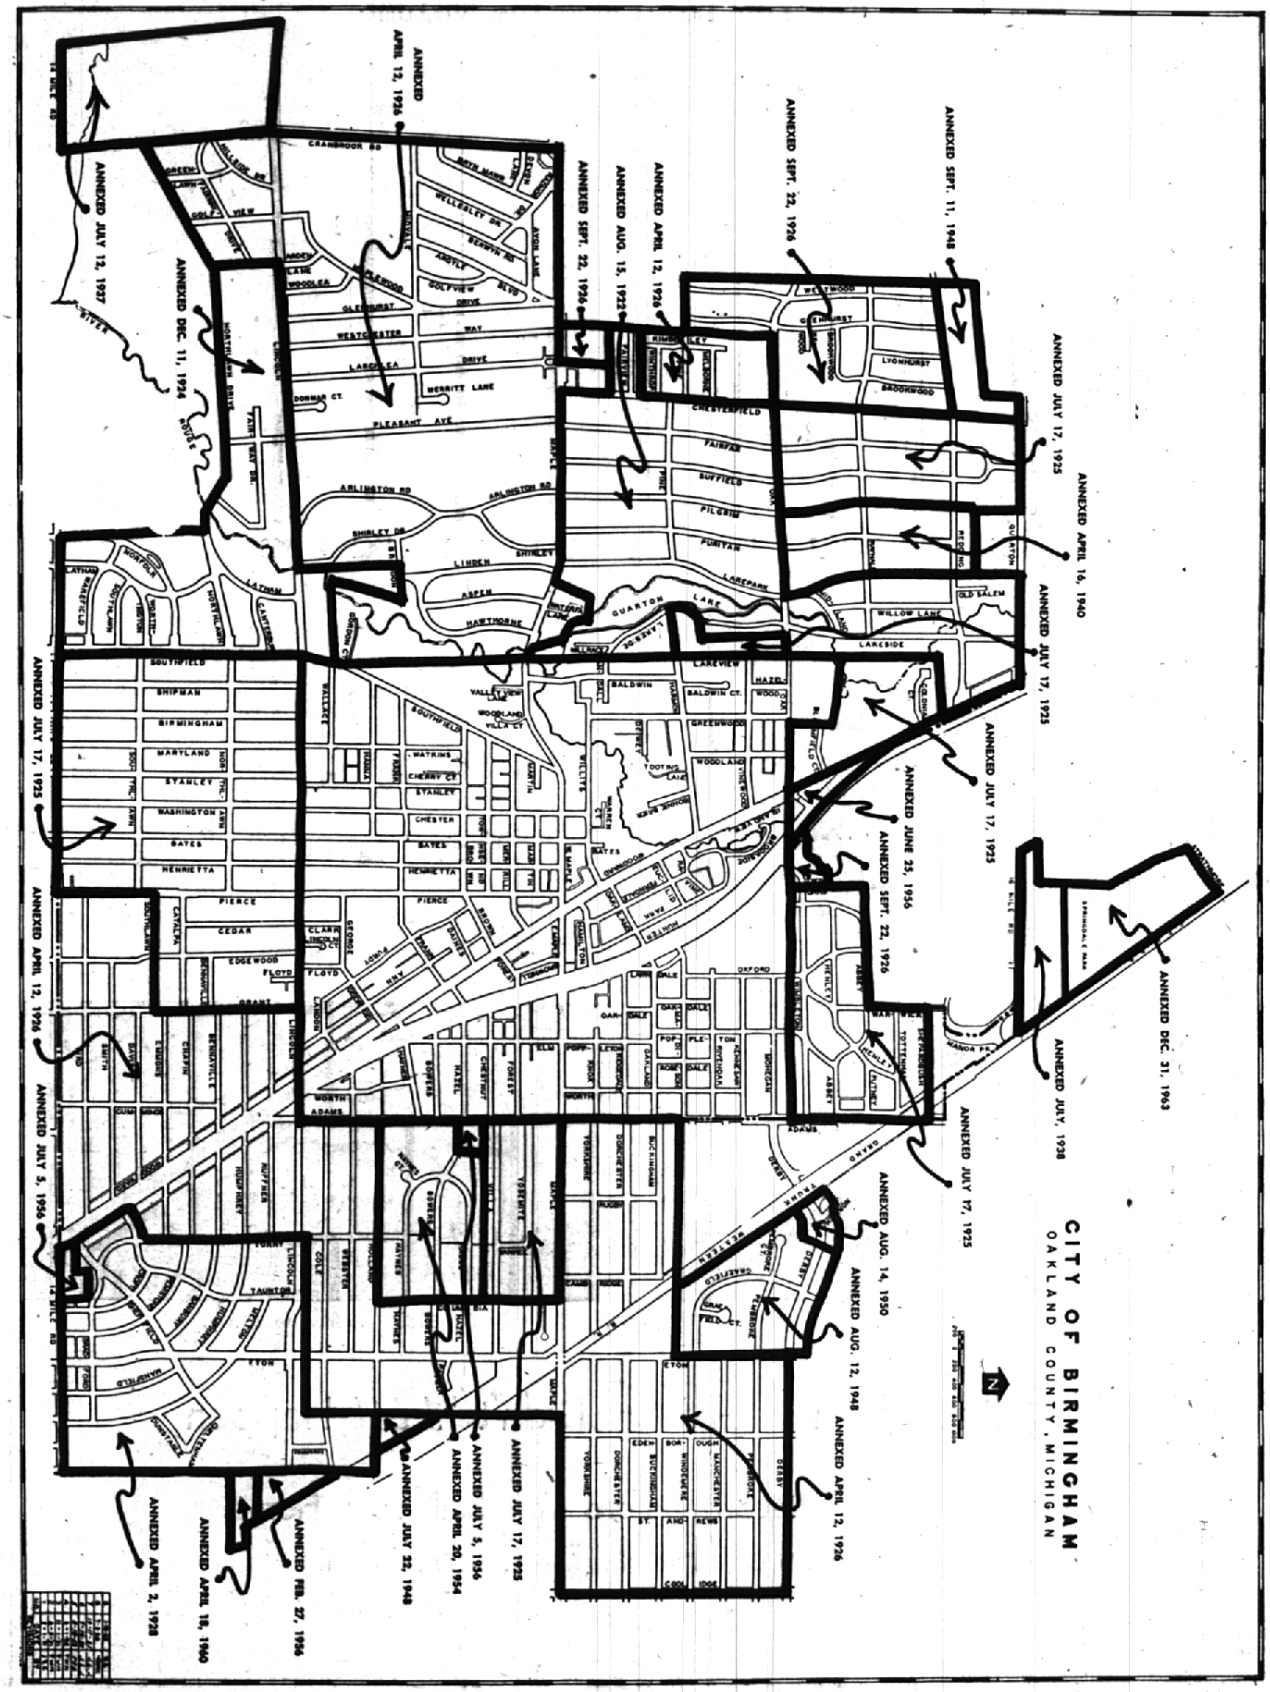
Square Mile Became Four



ORIGINALLY ONE SQUARE MILE, the City of Birmingham has grown to four square miles as a result of 31 annexations through the years. The first of these was made Aug. 15, 1922. Others occurred in the 20's, including five different areas annexed July 17, 1925. More annexations have been made periodically through the years, the most recent one Dec. 31, 1963. Presently under consideration is annexation of Manor Road from Bloomfield Township.
