

We're Having A Birthday, Too!

Ten Years Ago Today, May 14, 1954,
We Opened Our Doors!

It has been a happy and pleasant ten years . . . which is one of the many reasons why we are so pleased that our 10th birthday occurs during this Birmingham Centennial celebration.

We feel it is a privilege to work and live in such a fine community as Birmingham . . . and Thank You for making our first ten years so wonderful!

Sincerely,
Vince Secontine

She's A Grand Old Town, She's A High-Flyin' Town . . .

A Town we're mighty proud of . . . a Town we've been a part of since 1951 . . . a Town we'll continue to be proud of and do our part for. Happy Birthday, Birmingham!

need we say more?
