

We Remember When . . .

Do You?

Since 1928 we have pioneered the principle of the finest quality shoes, expertly fitted and customer satisfaction of utmost importance. Our continued growth since our first location in the Wabeek Building has proved the soundness of this business practice.

From 1964 and looking onward, we renew our pledge to continue this policy . . . and have a wonderful, gay and happy birthday, Birmingham!

Growing Together . . .

1956 ————— 1964

We're a long way from a hundred but mighty proud of our eight years here in Birmingham . . . such a fine lady to grow up with!

We have enjoyed being among so many fine people in this wonderful community and look forward with pleasure to the many fine years ahead for all of us. We at The Inspiration Shop salute our city on its 100th birthday.
