

To you who remember these scenes of Birmingham, we pay homage during our Centennial festivities. You who have established your businesses here, who have lived here, worked here and coordinated your efforts to establish what we are all now celebrating, the 100th Birthday of Birmingham's incorporation. To you we doff our hats in thanks for 100 years of the gracious growth of the finest community in the land!

Remember When Birmingham Looked Like This?

To those who do not remember these scenes of Birmingham goes a responsibility and trust so that their great grandchildren may celebrate a Birmingham Bicentennial. It is their responsibility to see that this city, unlike many other cities, goes forward in just as firm steps toward the coming years as it has walked in the past 100. We're proud of our city as we inherit the past 100 . . . it is up to us to make our children's children proud of the next 100!
