Heritage Day Is Their Project

COMMITTEE PLANS TOUR, LUNCH, DEDICATION

Heritage Day, organized by the Historic and Heritage Committee of the Borough of Hamilton, will be held on Saturday, May 15th. The day will feature a tour of historic sites in the city, a lunch, and a dedication ceremony.

Conditions Certainly Were ‘Prosperous’ For City in 1883

According to the Board of City Engineers, the city of Hamilton had a population of 28,411 in 1883. The city was predominantly Irish, with a small number of African Americans and Eastern Europeans.

A Bit About Barmen

Barmen School was founded in 1875 and was the first public school in Hamilton. It served as a model for other schools in the city.
